"This story is not only a most pathetic and realistic piece of fiction, it is a remarkable illustration of the power of the principles of Christianity in a weak and vicious life. No story of which we know has more possibilities of doing good. Its truth, its pathos, its literary touch make it one of the year."

REV. DR. POTTS says of this work: "I have read with great pleasure 'The Ayres of Studleigh.' I found one difficulty about it, and that was that I could not give it up until I had finished the book. In my opinion, it is a charming story, beautifully written, and healthy in its tone and influence."
