Loretto Abbey.

On Monday morning the closing oxercises were held at Loretto Abbey.
High Mass was sung by Rov. W. Mocann, during which the choir admirably sustained their reputation for the manner in which they oxed in devotional singing. At 10.30 clock all repaired to he Academic Hall where the reconfering of honors took place. The audience was limited to His Grace Archibishop Walsh and a number of the clergymen among whom were noticed, Very Rov.
J. J. McCann, V.G., Rev. Fathers Ryan, Wynn, Rohleder, Hand, McBrady,
Walsh, Fracinon, McEntee, Kelly, MoCann, Small and Moriarty of Elmira,

A very charming programme was suc-

Walsh, Frachon, McKnitee, Kelly, McCann, Small and Moriarty of Elmira.

A very charming programme was auccessfully e-ricel out, comprising vocal and instrumental music, in which the pupils displayed a remarkable amount of skill. The vocal selections were sweetly appropriate, the soles were charmingly sung by Misses Chapin, Lo Bel and Shea, and the grand choruses gave ovidence of the carcial vocal training given by Mr. Schundt to whom great credit is due. The instrumental music may be provided to the carcial vocal training given by Mr. Schundt to whom great credit is due. The instrumental music was most creditable both accidation's interpretation of or part pelonaise op. 59, merited for no rullmitted praise. Her execution is brilliant, time and nowerful, yet with a touch of exquisite pathos that stirs the heat—it is soul communing with soul in delightful the content of promiums, His Graco addressed the pupils in a few choice words congratulating them on their success, and wishing them happiness for the future.
