GINGER-ALE.

If perchance you're "out on bail,"
Refresh yourself w' ginger ale;
When oppressed w' th undue heat,
This ginger-ale, prompt & sweet;
If you quako with ague-chills,
Quaff the ale, and quit the pills,
Since the virtues of our ale
For cold or heat alike avail;
Whetlier cold or heat be chronic,
The ale as well's a chronic tonic;
Rapidly rolls the public weal,
When the public imbibe it after each meal;
Should your nerves be unstrung by the carols
of Nilsson,
Seek tone and repose at the fountains of Wilson.
