

During the absence of Miss Gosling in England, Miss Ethel Nash has kindly offered to act as Secretary of the Sunday School.

The Treasurer of the Sanctuary Guild acknowledges the sum of $3.00, one year's subscription, from Mrs. J. W. Beatty.

The services during Lent were on the whole well attended. The Sunday congregations showed a marked increase. The attendance on Friday afternoons, if not so large as formerly, was more regular than ever before, and affords only another proof that conventional church-going is a thing of the past. Nowadays people go to church because they care. Mr. Kenrick's addresses were much liked, and helped many to realize the deep spiritual meaning of the "I ams" of our Lord. On Good Friday the three hours' service was conducted by the Rev. F. H. Hartley, whose opening address took place at the conclusion of Matins. Easter Day dawned brightly, and everything contributed towards the Great Festival. The church was decorated in white and gold, the music was excellent, the congregations and offertories larger than usual. Best of all, the number of communicants was nearly fifty more than usual for many years.

Three weeks ago St. George's was broken into and every cupboard and drawer forced open and ransacked. Nothing of any value was found, and all the damage done was to locks and bolts. On the same night another church in the neighborhood was entered, and a few days later the thieves were discovered, one of their friends turning informant. They are all in jail now, and will, we hope, start a better life when released. They are all under 20 years of age.

BALES FOR THE NORTH-WEST.

The final meeting of the St. George's W. A. will be held on Monday, 14th inst. At this meeting arrangements will be made for sending off the bales to the Northwest Missions. An earnest request is made to members of the congregation for clothing suitable for the boys of the Gordon School. Goods may be sent to the Rectory during the week. Groceries, medicines, boots and shoes will be most particularly useful and acceptable.
