Keep Minard's Liniment in the House.

Quips and Cranks.

One of the saddest sights in this world is to see the crabbed man try to smile when he meets the preacher.

A coloured philosopher is reported to have said: "Life, my breddern, am mos'ly made up of prayin' for rain and then wishin' it would cl'ar off."

She: The man I marry must be only a little lower than the angels. He (suddenly flopping): Here I am on my knees a little lower than one of them. (He got her).

Barber: Would you like a bottle of our hair restorer? Customer: No thank you; I prefer to remain baldheaded. Barber: Then our hair restorer is just the thing you want, sir.

Gadzok: If the people of the Viking age could have foreseen this age, what do you suppose they would have said about it? Zounds: Well, I guess they would have called it the biking age.

Boarder: Why in creation did you ring the breakfast bell at 4 o'clock this morning? Coo: The missus heard it thundering and told me to hurry up and serve breakfast before the milk soured.

A father was once asked by his daughter if there was any easy way of acquiring a knowledge of German. "No, my daughter," was his judicious reply; "it must be learned by main strength."

Applicant: I ask for the hand of your daughter. Parent: Have you any prospects for the future? Applicant: None whatever. Parent: She hasn't any, either. Take her, my boy, and be happy. Bless you both.

"Are you interested in golf, Mrs. Jennings?" asked young Simpkins, after raking his brains for some time for something to say; "I'm not familiar with his works at all," replied the old lady. "What has he written?"

First Workingman: Look at the inequality. Mr Million, who lives not ten squares from this corner, has a dog house which cost $5,000. What do you think of that? Second Workingman: I think it's a good thing he wanted it; for I built it for him, and made $1,000 out of it.

His Sister (to Tom, who has just returned from college): And don't you play a mandolin? Tom: No. His Sister: Nor sing college glees? Tom: No. His Sister: Nor figure in athletic contests? Tom: No. His Sister (reproachfully): Well, I'd just like to know what good college has done you, that's all.

Young Joblots: Mr. Bullion, I have come to tell you that your daughter is all the world to me. Old Bullion: You're another of those fe lows who want the earth. Young Joblots: I don't understand you, sir. Old Bullion: Why, the world is the earth, isn't it, and as my daughter is all the world to you, doesn't it follow that you want the earth? Young Joblots: Well, yes, if you put it that way.

A PIECE OF HER MIND.

A lady correspondent has this to say: "I want to give a piece of my mind to a certain class who object to advertising, when it costs them anything—this won't cost them a cent.

"I suffered a living death for nearly two years, with headaches, backache, in pain standing or walking, was being literally dragged out of existence, my misery increased by drugging.

"At last, in despair, I committed the sin of trying an advertised medicine, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and it restored me to the blessedness of sound health. I honor the physician who when he knows he can cure, has the moral courage to advertise the fact."

The medicine mentioned cures all the delicate diseases peculiar to females, as "Female Weakness," periodical pains, irregularities, nervous prostration, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus' dance, sleeplessness, threatened insanity.

To permanently cure constipation, biliousness, indigestion or dyspepsia, use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.
