

on Hijacking and it indicated the serious will of the seven Economic Summit countries to take action against a state that had flagrantly breached its international obligations with respect to the safety of international civil aviation.