

5. Each State Party shall:

(a) destroy [or divert] all chemical weapons pursuant to the Order specified in Annex IV, beginning not later than ... months and finishing not later than 10 years after the Convention enters into force for it,

(b) provide information annually regarding the implementation of its plans for destruction [or diversion] of chemical weapons; and

(c) certify, not later than 30 days after the destruction [or diversion] process has been completed, that all chemical weapons have been destroyed [or diverted].

6. Each State Party shall provide access to any chemical weapons destruction facilities and the facilities' storage for the purpose of systematic international on-site verification of destruction through the continuous */ presence of inspectors and continuous monitoring with on-site instruments, in accordance with Annex IV 1/.

7. Any chemical weapons discovered by a State Party after the initial declaration of chemical weapons shall be reported, secured and destroyed, as provided in Annex IV. 2/

8. All locations where chemical weapons are [stored or] destroyed shall be subject to systematic international on-site verification, through on-site inspection and monitoring with on-site instruments in accordance with Annex IV 1/.

9. Any State Party which has on its territory chemical weapons which are under the control of a State that is not a Party to this Convention shall ensure that such weapons are removed from its territory not later than ... months after the date on which the Convention entered into force for it.

10. The declaration, plans and information submitted by each State Party under this article shall be made in accordance with Annex ... and Annex ...

*/ The precise wording to express this concept satisfactorily in some of the languages requires further elaboration.

1/ The provisions of Annex IV, which address verification, require further elaboration.

2/ In view of the complex situations these chemical weapons involve, this issue needs to be further discussed and resolved.