

- (d) a statement of the jurisdiction of the Requesting Party over the offence if it was committed outside its territory.
2. A request for extradition which relates to a person accused of an offence or convicted in absentia shall be supported by:
- (a) a copy of the order of arrest; and
  - (b) in the event that the law of the Requested Party so requires, evidence that would justify committal for extradition.
    - (i) For the purpose of Paragraph 2(b), a summary of the facts of the case setting out the evidence, including evidence of the identity of the offender shall be admitted in evidence as proof of the facts contained therein provided that a prosecutor certifies that the evidence described in the summary was obtained in accordance with the law of the Requesting Party.
    - (ii) The summary of facts may include any statements, reports, reproductions or other useful documentation.
    - (iii) The summary of facts may contain evidence gathered in the Requesting Party or elsewhere and shall be admitted in evidence whether or not such evidence would otherwise be admissible under the law of the Requested Party.
3. A request for extradition which relates to a person who has been convicted shall be supported by:
- (a) a copy of the judgment of conviction or, if the person has been convicted but not yet sentenced, a statement by a judicial authority to that effect;
  - (b) a copy or a statement of the charge upon which the person has been convicted;
