

Table of Contents

I	INTRODUCTION.....	1
A.	General Comments
B.	Underlying Themes
1.	The Need to Change Attitudes as Well as Procedures
2.	The Need for Strong Political Will
3.	The Public Expects More From Parliament
4.	Regulation is Not a Panacea
5.	Putting People First
6.	The Need for Flexibility
7.	The Benefits of Consultation
C.	Principles That Shaped Our Recommendations
1.	If It Works, Don't Fix It
2.	No "Fine Tuning"
3.	Allow Flexibility, But Ensure Action
II	IMPROVING NEW REGULATION.....	4
A.	Consultation: Communication and Openness
B.	Advance Notice
1.	List of Persons to be Notified
2.	Regulatory Agenda
3.	An Index
C.	Public Hearings and Discussion Papers
D.	Publication of Draft Regulations for Comment
E.	Disciplined Regulation
III	IMPROVING EXISTING REGULATION	11
A.	General Comments
B.	Review of Existing Statutes and Regulations
C.	Evaluation of Regulatory Programs
IV	OTHER TOOLS FOR REGULATORY REFORM.....	12
A.	Sunset Clauses
B.	Annual Reports
C.	A Regulatory Budget
V	REGULATORY AGENCIES.....	14
A.	General Comments
B.	Mandate of Regulatory Agencies
C.	Policy Directives	