

CHAPTER VIII.

Pwyll, Prince of Dyved—The Feast at Narberth—The Magic Mound—	PAGE
Rhiannon, the Daughter of Heveydd—The Palace—The Banquet One
Year Away—The Mysterious Bag—Pwyll Marries Rhiannon,	269-274

CHAPTER IX.

Branwen, the Daughter of Llyr—Bendigeid Vran and the Thirteen Ships
he saw—The Message of Matholch—Matholch Weds Branwen—Evnisseyen Injures the King's Horses—The Bewitched Caldron—
Tumult in Matholch's Kingdom—The Caldron Yields Armed Men—
Bendigeid is Slain and his Head Buried under the White Tower,	275-283

CHAPTER X.

Manawyddan—Pryderi, the Son of Pwyll and Rhiannon—The Marriage of Pryderi and Kicva—His Cousin Seizes his Estates—Rhiann-on Becomes the Wife of Manawyddan—The Banquet at Narberth
—What was Seen and Heard from the Mound—The Deserted Castle—The Wild Boar and the Dogs—Pryderi Enters the Castle
—His Discoveries—Manawyddan and Kicva go to England—The Cordwainers Attempt to Slay Them—The Magic Wheat—The Mouse Robber—The Lord Bishop—Pryderi and Rhiannon are Released by Magic—The End of the Mabinogi—Southey's Estimate of the Mabinogion,	284-294

CHAPTER XI.

Kilwich and Olwen—Birth of Kilwich—The Briar with Two Blossoms—
Death of King Doged—Kilwich Sets Out to Obtain Olwen for his Wife—He Comes to Arthur's Palace—Arthur Makes Search for Olwen—The Strange Castle—Kay Discovers the Maiden—The
Magic Flax—The Harp of Teirtu,	295-306

CHAPTER XII.

Kilwich and Olwen (Continued)—The Black Knight—The Castle of Gwernach the Giant—Kay Polishes a Sword—He Slays the Giant—
The Search for Eidoel—The Eagle of Gwern Abwy—The Salmon—
The Wolf Gast Rhymhi—Marriage of Kilwich and Olwen, . . .	307-313