tell them, and should one prove refractory, priestly vengeance is wreaked upon him and upon his corpse after death; in short, the hierarchy of Canada is resorting to all the tricks and contrivances that served the ecclesiastics of the d rivages so well. As they lose ground in Europe, they seem to gain it on this continent, and especially in our New Dominion, and it seems as if the battle already lost in the older countries would have to be re-fought in this. Some are foolishly looking for political regeneration to save us from this fearful strife; but that is vain. With a Parliament and Legislature in the Province of Quebec completely subservient to the behests of Rome, and all the forces combined to bar the wheels of the Dominion Legislature, the Executive of our country is even now so crippled it dare not move only in the direction of Rome. No political expedient will remedy this. Nothing but the work of God can emancipate the national mind. God may send some mighty convulsion to help on the work when his time shall have come, but in the mean time, as Bible Christians, let us to duty, and with increasing industry and faithfulness hold for the Word of life.
