

for a few weeks
great frowning
n, looking as
come from the
also, I observe
progress, and
at work in the
othing need be
oney in costly
th in fortifica-
efences.

ave,
the mountain
good work to ropriated. I
ood—in such
gatherings as
ch we all en-
ely hope that
upon the peo-
l, and that if
ort of annex-
ren's children.
them that the
ing a fleet of
ng up such a
s no question
promote one
ng the young
re of self-pro-
g of a pretty
d charged her
at safe ashore.
ated.) I fear
es of "go on"
onclusion let reat subject, I
ner, and kept
upon it, con-
disposal. My
to show our
vn our hearts
s of vast in-
away down
e great West,
long enough
less more tho-
to do, that I
erests created
has a great
eloped, out of
nces may yet
own the great
gh the Straits,
n, while the
, of England
o supply the
gives me op-
and examine
osition, in or-
n people, and
ally, and the
an adequate
of promoting
pment of the
dary line, for
the world on
the Conven-
a hearing as
le gentleman
and long con-