

The personal appearance of Mr. Walker was prepossessing being six feet in height, slender and well proportioned. His hair was loose, and his complexion was dark. His son, the only child he left, is now 18 years of age, and is said to resemble his father; he now resides at Charlestown, Mass., with his mother, Mrs. Dewson. Mr. Walker was a faithful member of the Methodist Church at Boston, whose pastor is the venerable father Snowden.

The reader thus has a brief notice of the life and character of David Walker."

Let no one suppose that I have written this for the sake of pecuniary gain, such is not the case; but to defend myself against those who are not just enough to "render unto Cesar the things which are Cesar's." I have laboured night and day at my calling, therefore I have no need of charity at the hands of any one. And from the proceeds of honest toil I have given away many pounds. Six pounds would not refund what I have given to fugitives during the last fall and winter;—this I am prepared to prove.

THE AUTHOR

Toronto, July, 1851.

I WAS born 22nd day of at the age of He who was Rev. J. B. I bequeathed children. A not dispose o at which we agreement w was no frier with the am acquainted. age, and my work out wh to go into a passed durin years before from my ma year from t expiration of labours of n hire and to me in debt s sequently pa