

This book is dedicated to the memory of my friend

*LIEUT.-COL. GEORGE TAYLOR DENISON

a Canadian soldier who gave his life for the British Empire on the blood-stained fields of France while the printer's ink was still moist on these pages.

A veritable appeal from the grave to the Canadian people to adopt Universal Military Service came from him. The appeal was in a letter received by the author after the writer had fallen.
