ciently to enable him to get time to work out the salvation of the estate. A little more consideration on the part of the creditors would have been for their own interest in this matter. The affairs of the firm stand to-day much in the position of two years ago. The indebtedness all told is probably about $200,000, with assets nominally about $10,000 more, but as these assets are hypothecated, more or less, unsecured creditors will not realize 20 cents in the dollar, and hypothecated creditors will have to protect themselves by the purchase of their securities. for Thursday was postponed till to-day, at which full statements will be presented to the creditors, and it is most likely that a stormy meeting will be held as the new creditors may consider themselves hardly used. In the meantime one or two creditors with apparently unfriendly spirit, are taking such measures as are sure to wreck the estate and prejudice their own interests. Such is the position of a creditor taking a saisie arret before judgment with grounds of the assignment already made in favor of the creditors, than which nothing could be more unwise and suicidal.
