in the form of books, with covers in special colours. On the cover of each book shall be printed instructions for the guidance of candidates, and to each shall be attached a small envelope containing a card or slip for the name of the candidate.

5. Each colour shall have a number, and only one colour shall be employed at a given examination. A certain scheme of colours shall be arranged beforehand for the whole period of the examination.

6. The seating of the students shall be arranged in advance, and shall not be made public until fifteen minutes before the commencement of the examination, when the plan shall be posted at the entrance to the examination room.

7. The invigilator-in-chief shall, when necessary, call the attention of the candidates to the rules printed upon the answer book. After this has been done, the examination papers shall be distributed.

8. During the course of the examinations the invigilators shall verify the position of each candidate in the examination hall according to the plan.

9. Before beginning to write on the examinations, candidates shall write their names plainly on the card provided in the envelope, and enclose it, fastening the envelope, and shall write the number of their desk or table plainly on the cover of the examination book.

10. Candidates shall write their answers on the right hand pages of the Answer Book, entering on the margin nothing but the number or letter of the question they are about to answer. The left hand page may be used for rough drafts or for scribbling purposes. No other paper than the regulation answer book above mentioned shall be used. All answer books issued to a candidate must be returned intact at the close of the examination.

11. No candidate shall be permitted to enter the examination room after the expiration of half an hour, or to leave it before the expiration of half an hour, from the commencement of the examination. Any candidate leaving the examination room after the issue of the examination papers
