
ORIGINAL PLAN
FOR ESTABLISHING AN AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY
IN THE PROVINCE OF QUEBEC,
M. DCC. LXXXIX.

His Excellency the Right Honorable
GUY LORD DORCHESTER,
 Patron and President.

Brigadier-General HOPE, Lieut. Govr. Vice-President.
THE MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL.

THE CANADIAN BISHOP.

WITH AS MANY CANADIAN AND ENGLISH GENTLEMEN

As may chuse to become Subscribers.

Sixteen Directors to be chosen yearly.

It is proposed that the following Gentlemen shall act as DIRECTORS for the first year.

Geo. Davison,	}	Esqrs.	Reverend Mr. Bedard,	}	Esqrs.
A. J. Duchesnay,			Reverend Mr. Toosey,
Henry Caldwell,			G. E. Taschereau,
Le Comte Dapr�,			Dr. J. M. Nooth,
Thomas Scott,			J. M. de Salaberry,
A. Berthelot,			Kennel Chandler,
Hugh Finlay,			Louis Dunier,
Charles Delandiere,	}	Esqrs.	David Lynd.

John Lees, Esq. Treasurer.—Mr. Finlay, Secretary.

Seven of the Directors may, at their meetings, proceed to business.

An annual meeting of the Subscribers to be held on the 6th. of April, where any member may propose whatever he may conceive to be for the improvement of Agriculture.

Every member of the Society to subscribe a Guinea, to be paid yearly at the General meeting.

The Members will communicate to the Society through their Secretary their observations in writing, upon any defect or wrong management in the Husbandry of their respective neighbourhoods, with their opinions of the best means to remedy such defects.

The Directors to make such Rules and Regulations, as they shall deem proper for conducting the affairs of the Society.

QUEBEC, 22d. February, 1789.