

RECORD of the CANADIAN TWENTY-TWO.

R. KENNEDY, Hamilton, Captain. A first-class bowler, with good judgment and a reliable bat; did good work in the recent matches at New York and Philadelphia.

ROBERT FERRIE, Hamilton. A good fast bowler, with an excellent delivery; very destructive; nearly, if not quite, the best bowler in Canada.

R. K. HOPE, Hamilton. A very fine bat, has a remarkably good cut. As a fielder can scarcely be surpassed.

A. H. HOPE, Hamilton. An improving bat; good longstop and sometimes keeps wickets in good form.

H. TOTTEN, Toronto. Against good bowling one of the best bats in the country; has a very fine drive, and hits well to the off; bowls slow, with a very peculiar delivery, and often proves destructive.

C. H. SPROULE, Toronto. One of the fastest run getters we have; plays to the off in splendid style; is a good fielder, and is unsurpassed as long stop; sometimes bowls.

R. BOULTON, Toronto. A steady bat, with good defence.

E. R. OGDEN, Upper Canada College, Toronto. One of the most promising young cricketers of the day; is a fine bat, with good defence, and punishing loose bowling terribly; is an extremely good bowler and fine field anywhere.

P. A. IRVING, Trinity College, Toronto. A good all round cricketer; at times bats in excellent style, but is apt to be a little impatient; bowls medium pace, round arm, and is a good field.

G. F. HALL, Port Hope. Splendid bat when well in, hitting freely to all parts of the field; good fast bowler and fine long stop.

S. RAY, Whitby. By many considered the safest bat in Canada; invariably makes a score against any kind of bowling; is a good field at points.

J. LAING, Whitby. Has recovered his old style, and this year is batting as good as ever; gets runs very freely, and when in good form is a dangerous bowler.

C. LOGAN, Fenelon Falls. A fine bowler, with high delivery, and very straight. His bowling against the Australians last year was of the highest order; a fair bat.

E. H. OSLER, Cobourg. A fine medium pace bowler, with high delivery; is generally a safe bat and an excellent field anywhere.

W. B. WELLS, Chatham. A good field and bat and a splendid hitter.

C. H. HYMAN, London. An excellent free bat, hitting well all round, and is a good field; plays with the Hamilton Club this season.

G. BRUNEL, Ottawa. A very destructive fast bowler, and one of the very best bats; his square leg hitting is very fine.

J. B. BROPHY, Ottawa. A good bowler and very good bat.

D. J. SMITH, Ottawa. A fine bat, hitting well to leg; is also a good long stop.

MCCONKEY, St. Catharines. A good bowler and bat.

H. S. SCADDING, Orillia. Slow round arm bowler; makes a good change; is batting in good form this season.

DR. SPRAGGE. Long recognized as the very best field; a free hitting bat and change bowler.
