

BONUS SYSTEM OPPOSED BY MUNICIPAL ASS'N.

Number of Important Resolutions
Are Passed—Mayor of Ottawa
Elected President

The Ontario Municipal Association concluded their sessions yesterday morning. Several recommendations were passed by the association, the most important being in regard to the repealing clause D, sub-section 12, of section 331 of the Consolidated Municipal Act. This clause provides that a manufacturer asking the municipality for a bonus in order to start business must, if there is another manufacturer in the same municipality, get the latter's consent. The opinion of the members was unanimously against the principle of bonusing. A motion that the clause be not adopted was carried.

Another resolution adopted was that the Municipal Act be amended to provide that upon a petition of 25 per cent. of the electors being presented, the council must submit a bylaw for election by ward.

Other resolutions passed were: That the provincial government should establish institutions to which heads of families who fail to provide for them thru inability, can be confined for treatment, instead of the county jail; that they be compelled to work in such institutions and their earnings forwarded to their families. That municipalities be allowed a share of licenses and fines collected from motorists to be used in road maintenance.

That the Assessment Act be so amended that where a block of land faces on more streets than one, the assessed value can be divided and placed on the different streets.

That section 35, sub-section 1 of the Assessment Act, be so amended that in towns and cities bylaws may be passed for the collection of rates on business and income assessment immediately after the confirmation of the assessment roll, at the current rate of taxation.

That the Good Roads Act be amended so as to require all streets thru towns and villages, not separated from a county, which are a continuation of roads forming a part of the good roads scheme, to be maintained and kept in repair as part of the said scheme.

That section 153, sub-section 2, of the Assessment Act be amended by providing that goods and chattels should be responsible at all times for the taxes on them, whether they had been disposed of or not.

That in the examination of the assessment rolls of towns and villages, "business assessments" and assessment for income shall not be taken into account.

That the Ontario Drainage Act be so amended as to make Indian lands amenable to that act.

That the Libraries Act be amended so that municipal councils must provide library boards with money required for maintenance from February 1 to October 1 in the year in which such public library is established, the amount not to exceed two-thirds of the sum required.

The officers elected were: President, Mayor Chas. Hopewell, Ottawa; 1st Vice-President, Controller Spencer, Toronto; 2nd Vice-President, Mayor Beattie, London; 3rd Vice-President, W. A. Clark, clerk of York Township and chairman of the rural section of the association; 4th Vice-President, W. Lane, County Clerk of Huron; 5th Vice-President, C. C. Hann, Mayor of Berlin; secretary-treasurer, K. McKeay, County Clerk of St. Thomas; executive committee: Mayor Geary, Toronto; Mayor Lawrence of Dundas, Mayor McLaren of Hamilton, Mayor McKeay of Owen Sound, City Solicitor Doherty, St. Thomas; City Solicitor Johnson, Toronto; City Clerk Kent, Hamilton; E. S. Glass, Reeve London Township; City Clerk Leonard, Brantford; City Solicitor Weddell, Hamilton; Ald. J. P. Jeffray, Galt, and Ald. Richter, London.

Public Amusements

Cyril Scott in "The Lottery Man."
Do you know what a grouchy fellow he is? It is a sort of mental healing which you can't help swallowing. It made its first appearance at the Bijou Theatre, New York, last fall, when it took the form of "The Lottery Man," a new comedy by Rida Johnson Young, in which Cyril Scott and the original players will be seen at the Royal Alexandra Theatre next week. The sale of seats is now progressing at the box office of the theatre and at the Bell Piano store, 146 Yonge street.

Thomas E. Shea at the Grand.
"The Belles," a psychological drama, will be presented by Thomas E. Shea during his engagement at the Grand, commencing Monday. In the great triangular scene Mathias, under the spell of the hypnotist, is put to sleep and does not every detail of the assassination. Mr. Shea is alone on the stage—alone, witnesses, and all others are in the background. It is a remarkable scene. Mr. Shea will also present his new play, "Self-Blame Man," and "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

Odvia Coming to Shea's.
Manager Shea has one of the biggest and best bills booked for Shea's Theatre next week, headed by "Odvia," the Samoan diving queen. A few months ago Odvia made her first appearance on this continent in New York and she was a hit immediately. The special feature of the week will be "Odvia" and "The Samoan Diving Queen," an interesting offering. Others will be "Aper and Brown," "The Samoan Diving Queen," "Girls from Muddy Lane," "The Three McGarrets" and the kinetograph.

Lieber & Co. have had a cable message from Gertrude Elliott (Mrs. Forbes Robertson), in which she says she and her husband will sail Sept. 7, on the Laurentian. Miss Elliott is expected in New York Sept. 26, and will at once begin rehearsals of "The Dawn of a To-morrow."

The Guards' Band at Massey Hall.
The musicians of the Grenadier Guards, who, as one critic has phrased it, "are bringing a sensation to thousands of music-lovers at the exhibition, have until Tuesday free in Toronto, and the proposal to employ Monday night with so acceptable that Massey Hall has proved so acceptable that the public opening of the plan this

at a very rapid rate.

"Faust" To-night.
Gounod's immortal "Faust" will be the offering of the Aborn English Grand Opera Company to-night for its sixth performance at the Royal Alexandra Theatre. A particularly promising feature of the occasion will be the return of Edith Helena to the cast for the role of Marguerite.

At the Princess.
Frederick Thompson's theatrical productions are invariably high class in every respect, and his latest offering, a drama entitled "My Man," which will begin a week's engagement at the Princess Theatre on Monday, will be no exception to the rule. "My Man" is a powerfully written drama of everyday life from the pen of Forrest Halsey. The trend towards realism is evident in this play.

At the Gayety.
The Fads and Follies Company will appear at the Gayety Theatre next week. The costumes and scenery are described as unusually beautiful and attractive.

"The Brigadiers" Coming.
Ald. and Anna Mack Bonner, appearing with "The Brigadiers" at the Star Theatre next week, have a novel and laughable new sketch, bearing the somewhat odd title, "Drunk Again."
It permits Miss Bonner, who is a handsome young woman if composing appearance, to appear to good advantage.

At the Majestic Theatre.
The Walker Quartet, a quartet of comedy cyclists, headed by Bill Walker, a pantomimic dancer on roller-skates, will be the feature attraction
next week at the Majestic Theatre.
Others billed are Pierce and Pierce, magicians, offering "Wonders in Egypt," and "The Egyptian Mummy." Miss Ogden, a clever prima donna contralto, The Carr Players, in a one act playlet, "The Last Chance"; Arthur and Gleanette, contortionists extraordinary, and Edgar Johnston, a European mimic. Four performances are given daily.

Marvelous Melba.
Thruout her Canadian concert tour Madame Melba will wear the Order of Literature, Art and Music, conferred on her by King Edward and personally planned on her breast by Her Majesty Queen Alexandra. Melba alone of all living singers, has been decorated and honored by every sovereign of Europe with the single exception of the Sultan of Turkey. Another of her remarkable records is that she has been commanded to sing at every gala performance given in England since her debut, both by Queen Victoria and King Edward.
On her present tour Melba will invariably wear the famous plastron of diamonds presented to her by the Czar and Czarina of Russia, and other of her magnificent jewels. She will be at Massey Hall, Wednesday, Sept. 21.
