POLICE ADMIT THEY FELL DOWN ON ROBBERY CASE

Criticized for Holding Two Men for Two Weeks Without Evidence -Another Burglary.

HAMILTON, Oct. 16 .- (Special.)-After holding two men in jail for two weeks in connection with the mysterious robbery of more than $8000 from the vault of the Canadian Express Co.'s office in this city, on the night of Sept. 29, the local police were forced to admit this morning that they had completely fallen down on the case.

George W. Kennough, the former night clerk in the express company' office, who was arrested on suspicion when the robbery was discovered, and his friend, John W. Hughes, a former employe of the company, arrested the same day on a nominal charge of vagrancy, both appeared in police court this morning, but no evidence was introduced against them in the big theft case. Hughes was discharged from custody, but Kennough, against whom another charge of theft has been laid, is still held, and will appear before Judge Monck in county court to-morrow morning. The express company allege that he stole $15 which he col-

Another Mysterious Burglary.

The local detectives were put to work on another mysterious burglary this morning, which is said to have taken place last Friday night, when the ancient vault in the Balfour, Syme warehouse was looted of some documents and about 100 in cash. Access to the vault was gained by the use of a key which is kept in the office. The members of the firm have been unable to furnishe the detectives with any clue in the matter.
