

WARRANT ACTION ON NEW STATION TODAY

City Will Demand That Railway Commission Do Something With Viaduct and Terminal Not Appearing on Program—Important Fruit Growers' Application.

What will happen at the Dominion Railway Board's session in the city hall today is a question. But the city fathers are determined that some action must be taken in the matter of the much delayed Union Station and viaduct questions, which have been before the board so long.

The only matter on the agenda affecting Toronto is the George street crossing, which is to be left open, but will have no subway. The board may order the railways to employ day and night watchmen to look after the public safety.

Nothing could be ascertained from Corporation Counsel Geary and City Solicitor Johnson when asked as to what method they will resort to, to bring the matters before the board. It is understood that the legal representatives will endeavor to effect the efforts of Toronto's lawyers to bring about a speedy settlement which will be satisfactory to the city.

A question of great importance to Ontario fruit growers will be taken up at this sitting. It is an application from the Fruit Growers' Association for an order requiring the railway companies:

(a) To accept and forward part carloads of fruit at the carload rate, subject to the carload minimum weight, from the original shipping point to the final destination, to be stopped en route for completion of the carload at an additional charge of $3 per car for each such stop. (b) For the carriage of fruit, to furnish refrigerator cars equipped with rack or slatted floors so as to ensure free circulation of cold or warm air. (c) To reimburse the cost of such rack or slatted floors when these have to be furnished by shippers themselves. (d) To reimburse the cost of the slatted floors and paper linings necessary to adapt cars for this traffic, in case the railway companies should be unable to furnish refrigerator cars on reasonable notice.

Geary has instructions to have the board of control to be ready to proceed with the case. This will be the last session held by the commission before it commences its extended tour thru the west, and by the elimination of the discussion from the agenda, the matter will be held over for at least 12 months.

G. R. Geary has also been instructed to make application to the railway commission for an order of the board making the telephone rates of the newly annexed portions of the city uniform with the older sections.

Psoriasis All Over Body

Doctors Said Incurable, But Now There is No Sign of Disease, Thanks to Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mde. N. Massey.

Psoriasis is one of the most dreaded of itching skin diseases. It is a sort of chronic eczema. The itching it causes is almost beyond human endurance, and doctors are accustomed to give it up as incurable.

But here is a case that was given up and pronounced incurable. The result proves that Dr. Chase's Ointment almost works miracles in curing the worst form of itching skin disease imaginable.

Mrs. Nettie Massey, Concession, Ont., writes:—"For five years I suffered with what three doctors called psoriasis. They could not help me, and one of them told me if anyone offered to guarantee a cure for $50.00 to keep my money, as it could not be cured. The disease spread all over me, even on my face and head, and the itching and burning was hard to bear. I used eight boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and I am glad to say I am entirely cured, not a sign of a sore to be seen. I can hardly praise this ointment enough."

The soothing, healing influence of Dr. Chase's Ointment is truly wonderful. Eczema, salt rheum, barber's itch, ringworm and scores of such torturing ailments are relieved at once and as certainly cured if the Ointment is used persistently. Mothers find Dr. Chase's Ointment invaluable in preventing and curing the skin troubles of babies, such as chafing, irritations of the skin and baby eczema.

TELEPHONES MUST BE MOVED FROM QUESTIONABLE HOUSES

Toronto Vigilance Association Will Endeavor to Force Company to Live Up to One of Its Rules That No Service Be Supplied to Any House of Ill-Fame.

After relocating at the success of the Toronto Vigilance Association, inasmuch as the fruits of their labors had shown in the past meeting at Massey Hall, Rev. R. B. St. Clair at a meeting of the association last night set to work to outline the business before the association in the forthcoming year. He declared that an effort will be made to persuade or force the telephone company to live up to what he declares to be one of its rules, that no telephone service shall be supplied to any house of ill-fame. This, he said, was not being adhered to, inasmuch as the telephone book showed the number of a place in Elm street well known to be a place of this nature. He cited other instances in Springhurst avenue, Beverly street, Adelaide street and other streets in residential sections, naming Rosedale, Parkdale, etc.

He declared that in Shuter street and the lanes leading from it bands or clubs of young men, scarcely more than boys, were engaging in nameless offences against morality. He said that the attention of the association must still be directed to the removal of the street masquerade, the parks, the stations and the automobiles and roadhouses.

Speaking of burlesque theatre performances Mr. St. Clair said that on the previous night he had attended a burlesque performance, taking with him paper and pencil to make notes of objectionable features, but had found none to which, looking neither as preacher nor rake, but as an ordinary man of decent morals, he could object. He declared that performances in so-called high-class theatres were more harmful in a number of cases than those in burlesque houses, where the audience are chiefly men.

He declared that all cities were cleaning up and that Toronto's campaign was having a splendid influence elsewhere. "They are cleaning up in Calgary," he said. "Even Cuddy in cleaning up and doing far more than he did in the second police division here."

He went on to say that there were features in the business of the larger hotels that needed investigation and correction and lastly pointed out that the message business of certain establishments in Yonge street were openly of a nature which should be stopped.

THREE NEW MINISTERS

Presbyterians Secure Men For Vacated Toronto Pulpits—Cabled Sanction to Rev. McNeill of Liverpool.

When Toronto Presbytery holds its next meeting, it is likely that three new faces will be seen among the black garbed ministers. The three new men are Rev. John McNeill of Liverpool, Eng., Rev. R. M. Hamilton, late of Scotland, and Rev. J. W. H. Milne of Ottawa.

The presbytery held a well attended meeting yesterday in St. James' square church, when the three calls were sustained. Rev. McNeill of Liverpool is the choice of St. James' Presbyterian Church, in succession to Rev. Dr. Taylor. The call has not been formally accepted by Mr. McNeill, but it is understood that he has as much as accepted. The presbytery's sanction will be cabled immediately.

The call from St. Enoch's to Rev. Mr. Hamilton was sustained by the presbytery and accepted by Mr. Hamilton, who was present. Rev. Dr. I. Duggan, Moderator, formally received him into the Canadian Church, and his induction will take place on Thursday, Nov. 28, at St. Enoch's Church.

The third call sustained by the presbytery was from Westminster Church, Weston, to Rev. J. W. H. Milne of Ottawa. Mr. Milne has not yet accepted

REPLIES TO PAULISTS

J.G. Butland Says Teachings of Church Are at Variance With Bible.

The subject of Mr. J. G. Butland's address in the Y. W. C. A. Hall Sunday evening was a reply to the Paulist Fathers' lecture on the sacrifice of the mass. Mr. Butland read from the Roman Catholic "Mission Book and 'Missa,' and also from the Roman Catholic Bible, in order to show that the traditional teachings of the church were at variance on this great question with the statements contained in their own Bible. In the teaching and practice of the church, he said Christ every himself by the officiating priest every time the sacrifice of the mass is administered, while in the ninth and tenth chapters of the Epistle to the Hebrews, it is clearly stated as follows: "Jesus has not entered into the holies with hands, but into heaven himself, nor yet that He should offer Himself often, but now once at the end of ages He has appeared for the destruction of sin by the sacrifice of Himself, and as it is appointed unto men once to die and after this the judgment, so also Christ was offered once to exhaust the sins of many, and that we are sanctified by the oblation of the body of Jesus Christ; for by one oblation He hath perfected forever them that are sanctified, and the Holy Ghost also doth testify this to us; and their sins and iniquities I will remember no more. Now where there is a remission of these there is no more oblation for sin. Having therefore brethren confidence in the entering into the holies by the blood of Christ, let us draw near."
