AYLESWORTH IN NORTH YORK BY 500

LIBERALS WIN WITH PARDEE'S POOR SHOWING IN OTHER TWO

SMITH REAKES WENTWORTH BY 8

Big Demonstration at Newmarket for P. M. G. Who Exults in What He Terms the Defeat of W. F. Maclean and the "Redemption" of a Riding Which Was Lost in January.

MAILED AS NEXT PREMIER BY CELEBRATING FRIENDS

The returns are not yet complete, but enough is known to enable a comparison to be made with the results of a year ago. At the general elections all four constituencies returned the Liberal candidates, and with the exception of Wentworth, all gave large majorities. These majorities have been greatly reduced. The figures of a year ago, and those of yesterday are:

North York:	1904—Liberal majority..... 942
1905—Liberal majority about 500
Wentworth:	1904—Liberal majority..... 39
1905—Conservative majority.. 8
West Lambton:	1904—Liberal majority..... 47
1905—Liberal majority..... 175
Antigonish:	1904—Liberal majority..... 809
1905—Liberal majority..... 247

Newmarket, Nov. 22.—(Special).—Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, postmaster-general, was elected in North York to-day by a majority of 500 over Archie McCallum. The victory is won after a strenuous fight, which ended with a slump in the Liberal majority of 462 votes as compared with the election of Sir William Mackenzie a year ago. Aylesworth was the postmaster-general. That is where the mail bags are manufactured and where other government patronage is distributed. During the last few days of the campaign, Aylesworth visited the various factories in these two places, and it is said the men were advised that if Aylesworth did not win the future of the industry might not be very good. An unfortunate indiscretion on the part of the former candidate with regard to the local option question in North York was taken full advantage of by the Aylesworth campaign.

Congratulation is Due For Reduced Majorities

Only in Wentworth Was There Hope of Election, While the Lowered Majorities in the Other Constituencies Are Pleasing, Especially So the Showing in Antigonish.

R. L. Borden went to Ottawa last night pleased more than disappointed with the result of the by-elections. The World spoke to him at the Albany just before he left. At the time of his departure Wentworth was in doubt and Mr. Borden felt considerably elated over the announcement just before coming to the city that Smith had 8 majority. This was the only seat of the four contested which seemed to hold out much hope.

PARDEE'S POOR SHOWING SHOCK TO OLD TIMERS

The Both Sides Worked Quietly, a Big Vote Was Secured, With Lesueur Doing Well.

Sarnia, Nov. 22.—(Special).—The election to fill the vacancy seat in the commons resulted in West Lambton electing F. F. Pardee, in opposition to R. E. Lesueur, the Conservative candidate. The election was the quietest in the history of the riding, but nevertheless the Conservatives among the voters of the riding, and a public meeting at the town hall. A similar demonstration on a smaller scale took place at Aurora.

LIBERALS CLAIM AN ERROR BUT SMITH MEN CELEBRATE

Three Polling Divisions Show Conservative Majorities That in Last Election Voted Sealey.

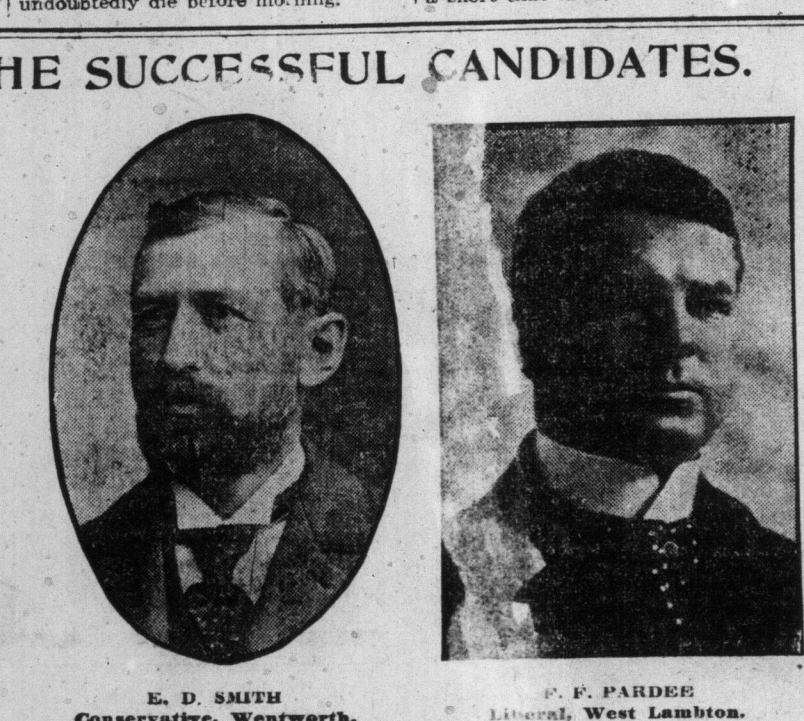

Hamilton, Nov. 22.—(Special).—The complete returns for Wentworth give E. D. Smith, Conservative, a majority of eight over W. O. Sealey. Even the Liberals admit that the figures that they have obtained give Smith that majority, but they claim there is a misapprehension in the Conservative figures. The Conservatives think that a recount will increase their candidate's majority. Smith had majorities in seven out of the ten municipalities.

Brooklyn Car Conductor, Poor in June, is a Wealthy Man Now—Fits His Money in Real Estate and Diamonds.

New York, Nov. 22.—While good luck and superior judgment of race horses has enabled Frank England of 291 Berkeley-street, Brooklyn, to win more than $150,000 in six months on 75 cents capital, it is owing to the good business sense of his wife that the greater part of his gains is safely invested. If her husband should have a long run of hard luck he would still be well to do.

SEND TARIFF COMMISSION TO CONSULT WITH CANADA

IS ROSEBERY'S SUGGESTION TO PROTECT IN PUBLICITY TARBELL'S SUGGESTION

Reform Lesquers Could Then Get Basis of a Treaty to Be Presented to the People of Both Lands—"Times" on the Situation.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable) London, Nov. 22.—Lord Rosebery speaking at Pease's said the only practicable union of the empire must be based on a series of periodical conferences from all parts of the empire, which would be drawn closer together by proposals from Great Britain, because the colonies resent the interference of the mother country with great, perhaps just jealousy.

Lord Rosebery challenged Mr. Chamberlain's statement that the empire could be united in a fiscal union without taxing raw materials and only slightly taxing food. The experiment might easily be made. Two or three richly endowed members of the Tariff Reform League might be sent to Canada to meet a few Canadians concerned with the fiscal needs and aspirations of that colony. Get, he said, these men to formulate a plan or treaty, which could be submitted to the people of Great Britain and Canada. If it was shown that the various interests involved approved of it, there would then be something tangible to go upon. The same might then be done with the other colonies.

Then Able to Judge. When these schemes were presented to the public we would then be in a position to judge if it was practicable or not to unite the empire in a fiscal union without taxing raw materials and the colonial manufacturers thought of it.

Regarding the unemployed question, Lord Rosebery thought the next government might do well to take General Booth into consideration, and a knowledge of the special machinery dealing with the workless.

Regarding the significance of Mr. Chamberlain's Bristol speech, as follows: Mr. Baillou's appeal to the Unionist party at Newcastle, on the fiscal question, Mr. Baillou says has been very wisely understood that the government would postpone a discussion beyond a few days or weeks. That would have been a commendable view had the party shown any disposition to unite upon Mr. Baillou's program, and had not the government in its dissent to that course, but as things are, it is difficult to see what public advantage could be secured by the government's retention of office until spring.

The Other Alternative. It would have to construct a royal speech, which every one would know by purely common sense. It would break up the session and make it practically useless for whichever party might come into office.

The other alternative is that Mr. Baillou, recognizing the great change in the situation, would decide at once that he can no longer count upon the support of a united party, and should, at an early date, place his resignation in the hands of his majority.

MISTAKE SOMEWHERE

Presbyterians and Baptists Both Claim Rutherford as Adherent.

Hon. A. C. Rutherford, premier of Alberta, holds a unique position in more ways than one. For instance, the Presbyterian of last week said: "The premier, Hon. Mr. Rutherford, is a Presbyterian and a good type of a Presbyterian."

The "Canadian Baptist" of yesterday published this: "A. C. Rutherford, premier of Alberta, is a Baptist desecrating a Strathcona Church, an old Woodstock student, a nephew of Alex. McDonald, a minister, and, of course, from old Osgoode."

A Comforting Thought. Did it ever occur to you that there is a lot of extra evidence in favor of you bought what you did from a reliable place.

For instance, in purchasing them most people have to rely to a large extent upon confidence in the dealer, and the fact that Dillman's, the oldest in Canada, continues to grow to an extent that confidence in the firm is not misplaced.
