MILITARY MACHINE IS A HOPELESS WRECK

At No Time Has Such Humiliation Come to Proud Prussia as in the Appearance of the Kaiser's Representatives Before Foch's Tent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 .- Since another Prussian king sent his wife to plead with Napoleon in the far off Tilsit time no such humiliation has ever come to Prussia as that comprised in the appearance of the representatives of Prussian-ized Germany seeking under a white flag to obtain the terms of armistice from a marshal of France. To sign these terms or to reject them would signify little. The crowning humiliation has come with the confession of defeat. Here was the ultimate demonstration of the fact that a military decision had been had in TORONTO, Nov. 8.—Canada is nearing the three hundred million mark in the Victory Loan campaign. In fact, if the figures to hand were up to date, there would be no doubt whatever of it having surpassed it. The total actually reported to headquarters here at midnight tonight is $29,014,400. In the south, in the centre of the great front from the Scheldt to Metz, the French are pushing forward with great speed, ironing out the great bulge which represents the surnto France which represents the sur-rival of the older salient extending to St. Gobian. Here the German retreat has become almost a flight, owing to the threat coming from the British

ide. Finally, in the east, between the Aisne nd the Meuse and astride the Meuse, american troops have broken through he second line of German defence and are advancing down the Meuse on either ank, having already eliminated the Jaubeuge-Mezieres-Metz lateral railway and thus brought about complete

No one will venture to prophesy that No one will venture to prophesy that the German army is now immediately to suffer something like the disaster which has in turn overtaken the Turk, the Bulgar and the Austrian upon the battlefield, the sort of disaster which has made Sedan forever memorable in military history. But the unmistakable fact is that the existing conditions permit one to say that it is not only not impossible, but hardly improbable.
