PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

A quiet but pretty wedding took place

Christ Church rectory on Wednes-

HUGHES-MISENER.

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place on Thursday, October 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Misener,

MANN-TOPPING

Leone, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

LUMSDEN-DIGBY.

bouquet of Bridal roses.

Miss Kathleen Digby, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, attired in mauve taffeta, while Miss Helen Waterous and Miss Helen Sinclair of Toronto were the bridesmaids, the former in pink taffeta and the latter in blue taffeta. All wore bronze panne velvet hats, with bronze slippers to match, and carried bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums. Capt. William Lyttle of Toronto was the best man, and the ushers were also men of military ser-ushers were also men of military service, Capt. Gordon Cockshutt, Mr. Stanley Beatty of Toronto, Mr. James Denniston of Winnipeg and Mr. Mortimer Davidson of Toronto. Rev. Canon J. B. Fotheringham was the officiating minister and during the ceremony.

Miss Ripert of Montreal is visiting of aunt, Miss Graydon, Dundas street.

Brig.-Gen. Shannon left last night for ermuda, where he will spend the winter months.

her was Mrs. T. C. Margrett, cutting the ices, the former in a pretty gown of gray crepe de chine, trimmed with black fur and wearing a big black velvet and the latter in a black velvet gown and big black hat, trimmed with French flowers. Mrs. J.K.H. Pope, a grey velvet gown and small blue her aunt, Miss Graydon, Dundas street. Erig.-Gen. Shannon left last night for Bermuda, where he will spend the winter months.

with French flowers. Mrs. J.K.H. Pope, in a grey velvet gown and small blue hat, ushered to the tea room. In the dining-room the three bridesmaids of the Pope-Butler wedding, were picturesque assistants in their bridesmaids' costumes. Mrs. Beresford and Miss Margaret Glass in peach charmeuse and large black hats and Miss Margaret Scatcherd in mauve charmeuse and large black hat, Mrs. Ripert of Montreal, in navy blue georgette and hat to match, was another assistant. Mrs. Harry Bennett and her sister, Miss Maude Jupp have returned home after a visit in Detroit.

Miss Ethel McRobert, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wilfred Mara, is in Toronto for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. J. Littler and daughter have returned to their home, this city, after an extended trip to Europe.

Mr. A. W. Essex of the S. S. Empress of France, paid a week-end visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Essex, 44 Gerrard street.

The Rev. D. C. McGregor will speak on "Home Life" at a meeting of the Union Mothers' Club held in Chesley Avenue School on Thursday evening. Mrs. C. S. Smith, with her infant son, has returned to her home in Wind-sor after spending two weeks with her mother, Mrs. J. Littler, of this city.

Mrs. (Dr.) Banghart will receive at her home, 477 Dundas street, on Tues-day afternoon, November 2, and after-wards on the first Tuesday of the month.

Miss Emma Woonton, Cambridge street, entertained at a jolly Hallow-e'en party at her home on Friday night, where in rooms decked with Miss Emma Woonton. Cambridge street, entertained at a jolly Hallowe'en party at her home on Friday night, where in rooms decked with streamers, the evening was spent in enjoyable tricks and games.

Miss Louise Carling has taken General Shannon's furnished flat for the winter and will be at home to her friends there. Miss Carling has just returned to the city after spending a month at the "Welland," St. Catherines.

The first Home Hour of this season will be held at the Y.W.C.A., King street, on Sunday afternoon next, when the gills of $X$1 Andrew's Church will be bridely pair, sat down to a wed-to-friends.

The first Home Hour of this season will be held at the Y.W.C.A., King street, on Sunday afternoon next, when the girls of St. Andrew's Church will be in charge. These home hours have been specially arranged for girls who are living in boarding houses.

Another function is being given in aid of the Sick Children's Hospital today at the Victoria Hospital Nurses' Home, when the Victoria Nurses' Alumnae are holding a bazaar during the afternoon and evening, which promises to be exceedingly popular.

Miss Eleanor Chantler and Mr. Norman Thompson will be the attendants at the wedding to be held in St. Paul's Cathedral next Saturday, when Miss Maude Jupp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jupp, becomes the bride of Mr. William J. Ashplant. Miss Kathleen Ashplant will sing at the wedding.

Richard Jupp, becomes the bride of Mr. William J. Ashplant. Miss Kathleen Ashplant will sing at the wedding.

Music lovers are receiving with great interest the announcement that Thomas Martin will give another of his enjoyable plaze recitals in the Masonic Hall, on MorJay, November 29. The program will consist of Chopin and Liszt numbers and an added feature will be a paper by Miss May Walker, explaining these compositions.

Witches, ghosts and great golden pumpkins were the dieties worshiped at many a gay gathering of girls last evening, who took the occasion to celebrate Hallowe'en. There were three enjoyable masquerades. One at the Wellington Street Y.W.C.A. and a third at the First Presbyterian Church. A fourth delightful Hallowe'en party was held at the Cronyn Memorial Church.

The pretty home of Mrs. Neville K. Pope, St. George street, was thrown open for her post nuptial reception yesterday afternoon, many friends taking this opportunity to call on the young bride. Yellow 'mums and pink roses, used profusely throughout the house, formed a pretty setting for the hostess, who was in her wedding gown of white satin, panniered with lace and made with a stately court train. Her flowers were violets and orchids. Receiving with her were Mrs. J. K. H. made with a stately court train. Her flowers were violets and orchids. Receiving with her were Mrs. J. K. H. Pope in a handsome gown of black crepe de chene and Mrs. J. C. Butler also in black crepe de chine.

In the dining-room Mrs. C. K. Edward poured tea from a pretty table centered with a silver basket of roses, glowing beneath soft candle light, with

YOUR OLD CARPETS Made Into New, Beautiful, Fluffy, Reversible Rugs. CANADA RUG COMPANY

DIAMOND DYES

Any Woman can Dye now

GIRLS' BASKETBALL LEAGUE REORGANIZED

Sixteen Teams To Enter This Year-Girls' Rules To

At a meeting held vesterday after oon at the King street Y.W.C.A. a girls' basketball league was formed for the 1920 to 1921 season, with Miss Hilda Keene as president, Miss Cecelia Mc-Taggart as vice-president and Miss Helen d'Avignon as secretary-treasurer. This year each member entering the league will have to pay a fee to help run expenses of the league and all gate receipts will be pooled. After expenses have been paid, if there is day, October 27, when Gladys, youngest daughter of Mrs. E. Scott, 461 Dorinda street, was united in marriage to Mr. W. H. Pitt, only son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pitt, 372 Simcoe street the Rev. C. R. Gunne officiating. Following a dainty wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, the happy couple left for a short honeymoon to the east. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Pitt will reside in London. rules too strenuous for girls. This year there will be at least sixteen teams entering the league, as there were sixteen teams represented at yesterday's meeting. Each team will be composed of nine players and three spares according to the new rules.

> Advertiser Patterns Owing to the pattern manufac-turers increasing the price of pat-terns to us, all patterns adver-tised from this date will be 15 CENTS EACH.

A fourth delightful Hailowe'en party was held at the Cronyn Memorial Church.

The Ladies' Golf Club is planning a bridge to be held at the "Kennels" on the afternoon of Wednesday, November 10, the proceeds to be for the purpose of redecorating and furnishing one of the upstair sitting-rooms at the Country Club. Each member is to have the privilege of making up a table of her friends and it is expected that about twenty tables in all will be engaged. Mrs. C. E. Hunt, Mrs. John Weld and Mrs. Donald McLean are the committee in charge of the arrangements for the bridge.

The last function of the Golf Club for this season will be the annual Golf Club for this season will be the annual Golf Club for this season will be the annual Golf Club for this season will be the more of Mrs. Neville K. Pope, St. George street, was thrown open for her post nuptial reception yesterday afternoon, many friends taking this opportunity to call on the young bridge. Yellow 'mums and pink roses, seed mofules. LUMSDEN—DIGBY.

sies. She also wore the groom's gift, pearl earrings. Mr. Gordon Scott played the wedding march and during the evedding march and during the wedding sister of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly." her wedding sister of played the wedding and during the wedding as a pearl barpin, and to the planist a fountain pen. Following the service luncheon was served, the guests numbering 30. Deep yellow in the brides cake. Mrs. Topping received her guests in a handsome ping received her guests in a handsome ping received her guests in a handsome ping received her guest in a handsome ping received her guests in a handsome ping received her guest in a handsome ping received h rate patterns, which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 15 cents FOR EACH pattern in silver or stamps.

Grace Church, Brantford, was the

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Besides—did I not owe him one thousand dollars—with little hope of paying it?
No, I mustn't turn again to Saun-

Neither aunt nor I had visited her there. As a matter of fact I don't think the smart Frenchwoman even occupied her flat for long. She was too fond of hanging on to rich friends. And her amusing qualities gave her the entree into many delightful homes, which entree perhaps a stricter inquiry into Julie's history might have forbidden.

ute.
So I descended to the lounge below.
It was about nine o'clock.
One or two couples sat about the place.
The lounge was rather badly lit. Int.

I noticed three women in a corner.
One of them had a chic air. They were talking confidentially, their heads close together. I couldn't see them properly.

Then the woman with the chic air And she was Julie! I caught my breath. Julie—at this hotel?

"My little Anne!" She had caught sight of me, and was on her feet in a twinkling. "Anne—all alone! What does it mean?" I smiled bravely at her. Julie would see me with my colors flying.
"I'm in town for a day or two."
She flung out her hands with a small, expressive gesture. "But never in a place like this! The Ritz, or the Savoy, or the Waldorf, maybe! But not here!"
Her tone was so full of real consternation that it almost touched me for a moment.

Also, Julie's presence brought back Also, Julie's presence brought back my luxurious past very strongly—that "past" that was removed from me by one single day!
"Little Anne! All alone! And so triste!" Her voice had compassion in it. But I hardened toward her. It was But I hardened toward her. It was policy to harden.
"Your good aunt? How is she?"
"Quite well, thanks." I was going to turn away, when Julie caught me "Wait a minute, cherie. I tell my friends that I must leave them. For you and I must have a little talk."

She darted over to the two women in the corner while the state of the two women in the corner while the corner with waved her hands, and was back with men! me once more.
"You have your heart on. That is good. You must come with me to my little flat just round the corner. There we will have coffee, and a nice, comfortable chat. No—I refuse to let you

She caught me playfully by the arm.
There was nothing for it but to comply. Indeed, in my lonely condition, I would have welcomed the soci-

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Facts about your name; its history; its meaning; whence it was derived; its significance; your lucky day and lucky jewel.

Claire was originally a masculine name. Generally spelled Clare, it was first used in England to name a Norman family who came from one of the villages of St. Clair. "Red de Clare." stout Gloucester's earl, the foe of Henry Grace Church, Brantford, was the scene of a pretty event on Saturday afternoon, when Edith Hope Digby, a afternoon, when Edith Hope Digby, a afternoon, when Edith Hope Digby, a sternoon, when Edith Hope Digby, and accendant of one of the oldest Brantford first resident physician of Brantford, first resident physician of Brantford, first resident physician of Brantford, and Mrs. H. D. Lumsden of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Lumsden of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Lumsden of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Lumsden of Ortilla. The church had been prettily decorated for the occasion with yellow mums, oak leaves, palms and ferns, the beriboned centre pews being reserved for guests. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin. The charming young bride, who was given away by her brother, Dr. Reginald W. Digby, waits measure, 22, 24, 80, or whatever it may be. When misses' or brother, Dr. Reginald W. Digby, waits measure, 22, 24, 80, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waits and into France, where it was immediately charged in the original Clare. The court train, lined with pink satin, fell in graceful lines from the shoulders, and to it the vell was caught with orange blossoms. The bride carried a bouquet of Bridal roses.

Miss Kathleen Digby, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, attired

A great city at night can be a dreary place.

A great city at night can be a dreary place.

I sat in my sixth-floor bedroom and reflected on that fact.

If only there was someone I could go to.

Neil Saunders? What of him?

He had given me his address. The Bachelors' Club. He had particularly asked me to let him know if I were in any difficulty. I could call him up on the telephone.

But pride forbade.

Julie had taste. Her "parlor" was a combined dining it?

No, I mustn't turn again to Saunders. That would never do.

He might communicate with aunt. He would discover my whereabouts. I would be further humiliated, if that were possible.

Julie?

Nothing in the world would make me go to Julie. A false friend she'd been, right through.

And then I recollected that Julie had a small flat of her own, somewhere in this very neighborhood.

Neither aunt nor I had visited her there. As a matter of fact I don't think the smart Frenchwoman even Beside the vase there stood a tele-phone.

Through a half-opened door which led into the parlor I could glimpse Julie's bedroom, the color scheme of which was also pink.

"Excuse me for a moment, cherie. I want to change my frock for a kimono.

The wight is "raym" "and to have a kimono.

into Julie's history might have forbidden.

Just for a second, I felt that it would pass the time if I could go and look Julie up!

"Anne, where's your pride, you idiot!" I stared at my reflection in the mirror, angrily.

But loneliness was on me. I couldn't stand this solitary state another minute.

So I descended to the lounge below. It was about nine o'clock.

One or two couples sat about the place. The lounge was rather badly lit.

Want to change my frock for a kimmon. The night is warm." And Julie vanished.

Immediately after her departure the sharp ting-ting of the phone beli startled me.

Julie's pretty head came round the corner of the door.

"Please answer for me, Anne. And find out who desires to speak with me. Don't say I'm at home until you first tell me who is asking. Hurry!"

I crossed the floor, lifted the receiver off its hook, and said:

"Hello!"

A man's voice trickled across the A man's voice trickled across the

"Is that you, Julie dear?"
And the blood rushed to my cheeks in angry waves. For the speaker on the telephone was none other than my faithless Fred!

WHICH METHODIST
WOMEN WILL FACE

Cynthia Grey's
Mail-Box

Survey Going On This Week
Includes Hearing From Women.

So she whose face will never be fair
Needs not to give one sigh of despair;
For she may, if she choose, have a heart of grace
Which is worth far more than the loveliest face.

The big survey of the Methodist Church, which commences in London this week, will include a hearing from women delegates, this hearing to take place on the afternoon and evening off November 4. Some of the interesting questions which will be asked the Methodist women are as follows:

1. What organizations are existings in our churches for women's and girls work? What success is attending these organizations? How may they be improved? Is there overlapping be proved? Is there overlapping be improved? Is there overlapping be improved by Include a hearing from women this week, will include a hearing to the Methodist Church, which commences in London
this week, w

(b)-Domestics? (c) Mothers and children of poorer schools, hospitals, etc.?
(c) The non-English-speaking women and children? men and children?

3. Should the church establish homes and clubs where working girls could live reasonably and decently?

4. What further work should be undertaken by the church for the girls and women of the community urban and rural?

Leadership.

Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first peep in to your happy cosy corner, and I hope it may be accepted. I would like that stocking foot pattern so many ask for: it must be wonderful.

I don't want to detain you very long to on my first call, but I would like to correspond with a girl of my own age.

S. What can be done it would be it would like to be it will be done it would like to be it will be wonderful.

Leadership.

5. What can be done to secure more eaders in our church?

6. What should the church do to medy serious social conditions known o exist among the girls in our great cities?

7. What more should be done to secure suitable candidates for life serfrom among our young women? What should be the relation church to the great health and Thanks for the hospital mite.

ing problems?

(c) How may the connexional departments of the church be of greater service?

There Are Plenty of Blankets

The first touch of cold weather finds us scurrying to the cedar chest and the linen closet for extra bedding. Rather than run shy, it's a good plan to have on hand an extra pair of good blankets.

Heavy Union Blankets, pretty borders whipped ends ......$8.50, $12.50, $14.50 All-Wool Blankets. Special, pair ... $16.50 Cotton-Filled Comforters, good covering, reversible ......$3.00, $4.50, $6.00 and $6.75 A Very Heavy Sateen-Covered Comforter, extra quality, large size ......$10.00

Feather Pillows

Special quality covering, good feather filling. Per pair .....$1.98, $3.00, $5.00 and $6.00 cial each ......$2.50

18-Inch White Bath Toweling, Per yard ..... 22-Inch White Bath Toweling, 60c special quality ......

9-4 Hemmed Cotton Sheets, fine quality. Spe-

8-4 Cotton Sheets, hemmed, fine quality

On Frosty Nights It's Good to Know

24-Inch White Bath Toweling, 75c extra heavy ..... Colored Bath Toweling, very 45c

Corset Specials

No. 394-D. & A. Corsets, made in fine coutil, long hip, low bust, four hose supporters $2.39

No. 442-D. & A. Corsets, made in pink coutil, elastic inserts, long hip and low bust. Very special ...... $2.75 | for ...... 50c

Ladies' Black Hose

in cashmerette, full fashioned, in sizes 81/2, 9 Ladies' Black Cashmere Hose, all wool. Per pair ......$1.39 School Hose, in sizes 61/2 to 9; regular 75c,

R. J. YOUNG @ CO.

Mothers and children of poorer Methodist girls in training in its. hospitals, etc.?

The non-English-speaking and children?

Should the children?

C. H.

Ans.—I am sorry there are no comic recitations in the Mail-Box just now, recitations in the Mail-Box just now, through your column if you can get it. Am sending a recipe for raisin and peel to you. Thanks for the hospital dime.

The non-English-speaking wo
Should the children?

'Sweet Sixteen." WITCH HAZEL. Ans.-The S. F. P. has been forward-

Dear Miss Grey,—Here I am again, wanting some help. Will you please send me the stocking-foot pattern? Find inclosed a mite for hospital fund.

THE GYMNASIUM GIRL.

Ans.—The S. F. P. has been mailed the church to the great health and child welfare movements?

9. What forms of service are the women undertaking in the church to take the place of the work done during io. Are we satisfied with the place given women in the church.

Needs of Church.

11. (a) What is the particular need of the Methodist Church in your city?

(b) What are some of the outstanding problems?

Thanks for the hospital mite.

Dear Miss Grey,—I enjoy your page, and think you are doing good work for the sick children's hospital. Inclose mite for same. Would you oblige me by sending the much-sought stocking-foot pattern? Am sure it will be a great saving in helping to make stockings.

April 1. (a) What is the particular need is compared to you.

The pattern has been forwarded to you.

(c) How may the connexional departments of the church be of greater (d) How may the educational institutions of Methodism be of greater (e) What would you as a woman, advise to make more effective the work of the church in your city and the work of the church throughout Canada?

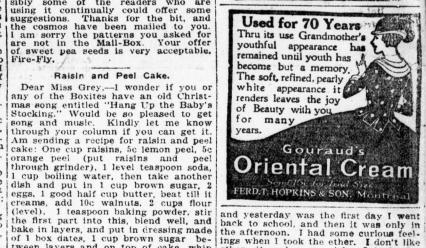

(f) What do you consider the distinctive pulpit message of Methodism?

The Stocking-Foot Pattern.

Dear Miss Cynthia,—To keep a degree of self-respect one must send along a bit for that most necessary S. C. H. but don't send S. F. P. as I have never seen an answer to Ex-Schoolmistress query as to material of which to make what to sew them to; in the meantime will go on patching, etc., which can be done quite satisfactorily while stockings are still quite good. Before the milk has gone from milkweed, will

We Specialize in Wedding Flowers

West Floral Co. PHONE 2187. 249 DUNDAS ST.

of I box dates, I cup brown sugar between layers and on top of cake, whip cream and put on top of cake over dates. This is delicious.

Ans.—Your request for the recitation is referred to the Boxites. Thank you for the cake recipe, Lois.

Ans.—I am sorry I can't send you seeds until you give me your seeds until your ings when I took the ether. I don't like

Ans.—Your request for the recitation is referred to the Boxites. Thank you for the cake recipe, Lois.

Had Curious Feelings.

Dear Miss Grey.—Please send me package of cosmos seeds. Find dime inclosed for them. I had my tonsils out on Friday in St. Joseph's Hospital,

HOME ECONOMICS

and yet does much public service, but I months of the year, in an ice-chest dur

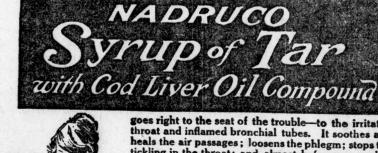

This friend, for instance, showed me er baby's bath table. It had three her baby's bath table. It had three stories, the top being the table proper, and the two lower ones screened by and the two lower ones screened by dainty muslin curtains. On the second shelf were arranged neatly the baby's clothes in daily use. and all the little things daily used in his care—soap powder, pins, thread and needles; in fact, everything a well-kept baby could need. The lowest shelf held his bath tub. The top of the table was finished in white enamel and the whole thing rested on rubber-faced castors, and could be wheeled as easily and quietly as a dinner wagon. as a dinner wagon. My friend had a daintily-lined clothes basket, which was the baby's first bed, and when the baby was bathed, his tub washed and put away, this basket stood on the table, and the baby lay in it, safe from draughts and easily moved from room to room. She took me to the other rooms in the She took me to the other rooms in the house to explain what she meant by the group system in them. In the kitchen was the cabinet where flour, meal, sugar, salt and spices were all at hand, with the utensils needed in cooking. Perishable the utensils needed in cooking. Perishable the utensils needed in cooking and with the utensils needed in cooking and the like were kept cold at no great distinction of the war without the needed in cooking and the like were kept cold at no great distinction.

and yet does much public service, but I can manage it only by using the group system."

The idea of the group system, as I learned from further conversation with her, is to have the necessary material and utensils for tasks so grouped as to be able to carry on the work with the (Convright 1920). The Metrostitus be able to carry on the work with the least possible loss of time and energy.

DOES MORE THAN STOP THE COUGH

goes right to the seat of the trouble—to the irritated throat and inflamed bronchial tubes. It soothes and heals the air passages; loosens the phlegm; stops the tickling in the throat; and, almost before you realize it, you are rid of the cough for good.

NADRUCO SYRUP OF TAR with COD LIVER OIL COMPOUND is pleasant to the taste—is agreeable to the stomach—and is particularly suited to the use of children.

Get a botttle today. Sold by most druggists. Prepared by National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limi

TALKS ON HEALTH

stanley Beatty of Toronto, Mr. James in the part of the victim, but the part of the part o

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D., Noted Physician and Author. Masked Lung Fever.

In elderly or feeble subjects, or in subjects of Bright's disease, or in alcoholic habitues, pneumonia may develop without the customary preliminary chill, without any noticeable fever, without any particular complaint of pain or distress on the part of the victim, but just an unwonted degree of weakness or prostration. Indeed it is a common terminal condition in various chronic diseases and in advanced age. Pneumonia in a drinker has too often been credulity and superstition.

