GOSSIP OF THE TURF. William K. Vanderbilt has won nearly $700,000 on the French turf in the last four years. Wm. O'Connell (McGee) will have fifty-seven horses—nine four-year-olds, twenty three-year-olds and twenty-eight two-year-olds—on the track at St. Louis de Polys this year. The four-year-olds will include Northeast, Gassick, I. Gassick, and others. None of the three-year-olds is likely to do as well as Northeast or Seaside II. It is believed in France.

The fact that Gov. Gillett of California has no reference to race-track legislation in his recent message to the legislature has been regarded as a good omen by turfmen. Several anti-betting bills have already been introduced, however, and a bitter warfare will be waged by Rudolph Spreckels and other influential citizens against the track.

The coming race meeting at Tampa, Fla., which opens on Feb. 3, will attract the best horses that the South has to offer. The race will be shipped from Long Island, Baltimore and Washington. The race will be shipped from Long Island, Baltimore and Washington. The race will be shipped from Long Island, Baltimore and Washington.

C. E. Jones, a bookmaker, who was arrested at Brighton Beach last summer and subsequently indicted, died a few days ago at his residence. Sixteen-year-old son, who was with him at the time of his death, was arrested and taken to the police station. The son was taken to the police station. The son was taken to the police station.

McKINLEY L. O. L. BANQUET. McKinley Lodge, L.O.L., held its usual successful quarterly open meeting last night with 250 present.

Past Master Dr. Geo. Graham was presented with an emblematic jewel. It is notable that his four-year past master of McKinley Lodge, to receive a past master's jewel.

Among the speakers were Controller Geary, L. J. McPherson, W. D. McPherson, Col. Belcher, Harry Lovelock, W. A. Sherwood and Industries Commissioner Thompson.

Tobogganing at Lambton. Lambton Golf Club's toboggan slide was opened last night with a good attendance and it proved to be everything that the fathers of the scheme had hoped for.

His steep, but regular pitch and unswerving course provided a swift quarter mile run over sheer ice. The chutes are banked safely through the whole of the slide, and the committee have been experimenting over the limits for the past few days, getting everything into perfect running order, and arranging electric lights and torches so that even in darkness could be especially catered to.

The whole length of the course is brilliantly illuminated. A great many machines are run by electricity and the toboggan parties are booked for the near future.

Players Leave Boston. BOSTON, Jan. 19.—Gessler, right-fielder, will next year captain the Boston American League team.

The Boston National League team announces that Jack Halligan, secured from New York, National League club last year, had been sold to Philadelphia.

President Dovey of the Boston National League team announced the release of four of his players held in reserve for 1909.

William Essick, the pitcher drafted from Kansas City last year, has been returned to his old club. Dan McDann has been released to Milwaukee. J. J. Hanifan has been released to the Philadelphia Nationals and James Lavender, a pitcher drafted from Holyoke last fall, has been disposed of to the Providence Eastern League team.

Basketball at St. Kitts. ST. CATHARINES, Jan. 19.—(Special.)—In a very keenly-contested game of basketball between the St. Kitts and the St. Catharines, the former won by three points. At half-time the score was 14 to 14. St. Catharines favor. At full-time the score was 24 to 24. At the end of the game the score was 38 to 38 in favor of Hamilton.

Might Change Her Mind. PASADENA, Cal., Jan. 19.—Miss Mary Sutton, world's champion women tennis player, is planning to play in the St. Louis tournament for the Canadian championship this summer.

Suburban Bookmaker Convicted. NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 19.—Phidole Philgelo and R. M. McNeill were found guilty of operating a betting book in violation of the Locke law. Conviction carries all sentence of not less than six months. The case will be appealed to the state supreme court.
