SAYS POLICE PERJURED

To Justify Cruelty in Arresting

McGill Students.

MONTREAL, May 14.—(Special.)

Ald. Carter of the police committee created a sensation to-day by charging constables who arrested some McGill students some time with having burlingly assaulted the boys and then having perjured themselves to justify their cruelty.

To Be Dyspeptic

Is To Be Miserable.

Dyspepsia is the prevailing malady of civilized life. It is largely due to gross errors in diet, over-eating, too free indulgence in stimulants and over-taxing the stomach with indigestible food, eating too rapidly without chewing the food sufficiently, indulging in hot biscuits, pastry, pickles, confectionery, etc.

Constipation, headache, heartburn, sour stomach, distress after eating, belching of wind, faintness, and fullness and disten-tion of the stomach are a few of the many distressing symptoms of the poor, weary dyspeptic. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the stomach, stimulates the secretion of the saliva and gastric juice to facilitate digestion, removes acidity, purifies the blood, and tones up the system to full health and vigor, and thereby cures dyspepsia and all its tributary diseases.

Mr. Amos Sawyer, Gold River, N.S., writes: "I was greatly troubled with dyspepsia, and after trying several doctors to no effect, I commenced taking Burdock Blood Bitters and I think it is the best medicine there is for that complaint."

THE WEATHER

OBSERVATORY, TORONTO, May 14.

(13 p.m.) Numerous light drizzles exist on the continent to-night, and pressure is nowhere above the normal. Showers have been fairly general in the Peninsula of Ontario; elsewhere, with the exception of a few drizzled showers, the weather has been fine.

Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—

Fresh easterly winds, partly fair; cooler in most localities; showers and local thunderstorms, more especially during the night and on Sunday.

LETTER WAS FULL

OF GOOD NEWS

Looking Ahead and Also Backward

Young Torontonians Relates News.

Toronto, Oct. 3, 1909.

Dear Herbert: I suppose you are wondering how we are all getting on.

It is a long time since I have written you, but really the summer was such a busy time for me that it seemed impossible to get an opportunity to drop even a brief letter. Now that I have a chance there is lots of good news at hand to tell you.

A little fortune fell to me this season in the form of a beautiful house and lot, situated on a splendid avenue and worth $4000. From now on I'll feel free to get married and start the home that Mabel and I have been planning about so long.

No doubt you will wonder how such unusual luck came my way. Well, it was not without an effort, but a fellow young man working two or three months when he can land such a big prize. Perhaps you have already heard everything, but in case you don't know,

I'll tell you.

At the beginning of last May The Toronto World, one of the brightest and most progressive papers in Canada, published a contest and offered $15,000 in prizes of various kinds. As you are aware, I have been working pretty faithfully for many years and yet could never get enough ahead to buy even a small house, so I decided to make an effort to get one of the big prizes. Mabel is so interested in all my undertakings that I immediately asked her to nominate me in order that I might try for the district in which I live. Dear girl, for the district in which I live, she very gleefully consented to send in my name and promised to work very hard to help me to win. I swore that if I could get one of the valuable prizes

I would buy a wee home and settle down at once. Of course I was not aware at the time that things would come my way so nicely, but I think it was as much the canvassing Mabel did for me as anything else.

Anyway, we got all our friends en-thusiased over the contest. (It was one of the most discussed events of the time in this city, which The World also offered for the nominator of the winner of the first grand prize, but I have decided to turn the proper attention to her day of our marriage, because she was largely responsible for my success.

Well, my man, I must get out of this as the evening is far agent and I've got to tumble out early in the morning.

The folks are all enjoying excellent health and taste of the "silver" is still a fickle companion. I hope you can get over this autumn to visit us and to see my pretentious home. Give my best wishes to everyone and write as soon as you can.

As ever, your old chum,

Charles.
