LAYMEN AND MINISTERS

"Then let the ministerial session discuss the laymen's report in private," said he, "and we can all join in a final general conflict afterwards."
Hon. Thomas Crawford interposed. "This is treating the Laymen's Association pretty mean," said he. "There are several extremely important resolutions in their report. I don't see why the conference can't find time to discuss the laymen's resolutions as well as all the other matters before the conference."

Everybody busy. Heads were bobbing up in all directions, and "Mr. President" were the words on everybody's lips as they endeavored to obtain a hearing. Founding his gavel, the president shouted for order, and finally got matters quieted somewhat by proposing a motion that the conference consider the laymen's report clause by clause. This was carried.

Mr. Powell read resolution one: "That the ministerial salary be made the basis of assessment for the superannuation fund."

Rev. J. B. Wallin jumped to his feet. "I believe this resolution is narrow and unjust," said he. "It is unreasonable and unjust." The clergy said "Amen."

The lay members started to explain. "You're out of order," said the president to one layman, who was attempting to get a hearing. "I'm in order," was the reply. "I appeal to the speaker." The matter was dropped with the resolution undecided upon.

Attack on Jackson. The proceedings now took on a different aspect. Rev. Dr. Cleaver introduced an amendment, that the general conference be memorialized to exclude from the professorship of the theological colleges any man holding such ideas of the Holy Scriptures and of the fallibility of Christ as that expressed in Rev. George Jackson's recent work. Loud and prolonged cheers greeted Dr. Cleaver's amendment.

Not so with A. B. Powell. "I don't think Dr. Cleaver's amendment is very good taste," said he. "I don't think it is time to protest."

"Well, what about yourself?" interrupted Rev. Dr. Briggs. "You too are indulging in personalities."

"It's a different case altogether," replied Mr. Powell, "and besides—"

Here the president intervened. "This question is one of serious moment. It needs more time for full discussion. I propose that we adjourn." And the meeting closed.

Carmen on Church Union. A comprehensive address was delivered at the morning session by Rev. Dr. Carman, the general superintendent, who was described by Dr. Gorman as "the grand old man of Canadian Methodism." Referring to church union, Dr. Carman said he believed it would eventually become a fact. "I have no fears for the stability of the superannuation fund," he said. "It is a civil right, and any twelve men can go before parliament and have it passed. Civil rights are being prejudiced. No parliament would allow union under such a protest."

"Whether you consider it fortunate or not," said he, "it is a fact that the Presbyterians are moving steadily forward."

T. Albert Moore, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, gave an optimistic report on his work, but intimated that many churches in the province do not seem to take any interest in the efforts of the alliance to bring about Sabbath observance.

At the evening meeting the formal resolution for the reception of the seven probationers from the Toronto Conference was proposed by Rev. Dr. J. A. Long, and seconded by Rev. W. E. Baker.

To Have Lay Evangelist. On Monday the Laymen's Association met for the purpose of appointing a lay evangelist for the Toronto Conference for this conference year, at a cost for services and expenses not to exceed $1500.

NEW TRADE TREATIES WITH THREE COUNTRIES

Italy, Netherlands and Belgium Will Have Benefit of Canada's Intermediate Tariff.

OTTAWA, June 10.—Details of the new trade agreements, concluded between Canada, Belgium, Italy and the Netherlands, which have been the subject of lengthy negotiations, were announced to-day.

Canada extends to Belgium and the Netherlands the provisions of its intermediate tariff, as respects articles mentioned in the French treaty. As regards a limited number specified in schedule C to that treaty, the concessions granted are not as great by reason of the fact that the rates given to France are below those of the intermediate tariff by special parliamentary enactment. The Customs Act does not authorize the government to extend by itself to make greater trade concessions than those provided in the intermediate tariff. As regards Italy the arrangements take the form of a specific agreement by the terms of which a certain list of Canadian exports are to be exempted from the duty of 10 per cent in exchange for our intermediate tariff on an equal number of articles.

Mr. Fielding explains that these countries are low tariff countries anyway and are granting them our intermediate tariff on practically the same items as France enjoys, largely because these countries have always treated Canada well and because when Germany became belligerent the British preference and imposed a retaliatory tariff on Canadian goods, Belgium and the Netherlands, who had just as much cause for complaint, did not retaliate.
