SOLD "KATALYS POWDER"

Katalys Powder was sold as a sub-stitute for yeast and from two to four ounces were used to the 100-pound bag of flour in the manufacture of bread. The case will be continued next Wednesday morning at 10.30.

A large attendance was at the working meeting of the Sir Henry Pellatt Chapter, I.O.D.E., yesterday afternoon, at 9 A Wellington street east. The women were working on khaki shirts and knitting. Machines flew, yarn was wound by swiftly movng fingers, and the needles kept time to the tongues that were busy plan-ning further efforts to raise funds for the soldiers and other patriotic cause.

BASKET CLOTH IS NEW FOR LATE SPRING SUITS

Popular Cotton Materials Exploit Checks and Stripes in Navy or Green.

Cotton basket cloth is numbered omong the new materials for late epring and summer wear, and it makes ap charmingly into pretty separate frocks, as well as smart little two or three-piece costumes. The designs and colors of the patterns in the new basket weaves are particularly effective and provide any amount of novelty. Pin checks as well as very wide grain ribbon.

awning stripes are encouraged, althou conservative check, polka dot and floral designs may also be had in a great array of fresh tints on good light hackgrounds.

The stripes are featured with much success in jaunty sports' suits and in these chic little models is exploited the vogue of navy and white or green and white. Lack of any unnecessary trimming is seen on almost every suit of this type, which also exploits collar and cuffs of plain contrasting material. A cool and modish little costume for quite early spring wear was in a two-inch green and white stripe.

The skirt was plain and full, with very large hip pockets, laid out with the stripe running diagonally. Pocket flaps were buttoned down with large white pearl disks, which also ornamented the fronts, cuffs and belt of the short flaring peplum jacket. Plain green was used for the contrast, and the hat for wear with this smart outfit was of green basket straw and gross grain ribbon. success in jaunty sports' suits and in
