

liberty. With the trend that is taking place, having regard to the unanimity there is in this country, surely we in this parliament will join together without regard to any other consideration in a great crusade to assure, not only freedom today to every individual under the law, but freedom to those who will come after us.

At six o'clock the house took recess.

The house resumed at eight o'clock.

PRIVILEGE

MR. KNOWLES—GRADUATION OF TWO VETERANS FROM UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA WITH GOLD MEDALS

Mr. STANLEY KNOWLES (Winnipeg North Centre): Mr. Speaker, on a point of privilege I wonder if I might bring a matter to the attention of the Minister of Veterans Affairs (Mr. Mackenzie). Has his attention been called to the fact that two veterans, Harry Crowe and John Crowe, Winnipeg, brothers who served overseas and whose schooling was thereby interrupted, graduated this afternoon from the university of Manitoba, both of them receiving gold medals? Would the minister join with me in congratulating these two men on their record-breaking achievement?

Right Hon. IAN A. MACKENZIE (Minister of Veterans Affairs): Mr. Speaker, I am only too proud, not only personally, but on behalf of the government, to identify ourselves with congratulations extended to these brilliant brothers. Perhaps with a certain amount of pardonable pride I might be permitted to refer to some of the courses which our department is carrying out. It is certainly with the greatest of pleasure that I identify the entire government, and indeed the house with the congratulations extended to these two brothers.

Mr. H. C. GREEN (Vancouver South): Mr. Speaker, may I add a word on behalf of the official opposition? It is a splendid thing to know that these young veterans have done so well. As a matter of fact, it has been a great inspiration to see the wonderful work done by all the veterans attending our universities. They have set a very high standard indeed.

Mr. DANIEL McIVOR (Fort William): Mr. Speaker, I should like to add my word, too. Surely this speaks well for our old alma mater of Manitoba. It shows that it gives a thorough training, and supplies the boys capable of taking it.
