Ontario turned itself upside down yesterday and will try a new set of representatives. The condemnation of the Ross government was complete, every section of the province, with the exception of two constituencies, doing its part in the house-cleaning business. The two constituencies which failed to show their disgust of the present regime were Ottawa, which in place of sending two Conservatives to the legislature, sends two Ross supporters, and Glengarry, which converts a Conservative majority of 484 into a Liberal majority of probably 400.

Ottawa City Goes Liberal Murphy and Ross Go Under

Civil Servant Vote and the Racial Cry Thought to Have Contributed to Defeat of the Opposition Candidates.

Ottawa, Jan. 25.—(Special).—To the fight a united battle. The defeat of Ottawa Valley falls the doubtful honor of contributing the three Liberal gains, two in Ottawa City and one in Glengarry. In Ottawa City the organization of the Liberals, perfected for the Dominion contest, was better than that of the Conservatives. Then, too, there was a big registration vote, and a large number of these were civil servants who have been given appointments by the Laurier government in the past few years.

THE RESULT.

The result of the polling yesterday was surprising only in the completeness of the Ross government defeat. That the government would be turned out was a foregone conclusion. That its following would be practically wiped out could not have been anticipated by Mr. Whitney's most optimistic friends. Ontario did herself credit yesterday. Every effort had been made by the government and its organs to obscure the real issues. There was constant appeal to prejudice and to party feeling. Over all these cries rose the call to duty, and the Ontario electorate responded by administering a humiliating defeat to the Ross government.

It is easy to be wise after the event, yet it now appears that the government was not at any time a dangerous factor in the elections, and that it could not by any process of deception in campaign tactics, have escaped the vengeance of an outraged electorate. But the fight was not won in the campaign; it was won during a long series of electoral victories which are without parallel in the history of Canada. Mr. Ross thought he could overcome the effect of these victories by pleading personal innocence and by relieving his government of responsibility for wrongs committed in its behalf. It never seemed possible that the people of Ontario could be induced to take such a view of the case, and the result of the voting yesterday shows that the people are fully capable of thinking for themselves in election contests.

The people have also shown that they are not blind to the methods of politicians and that they cannot be fooled by the principal equipment of Hon. G. W. Ross and his friends in the campaign which has just closed.

HE RAN HARD.
BUT HE MISSED HIS CAR.

Mr. Nesbitt was cheered to the echo by his willing workers. Later he came down town, and in the World office he addressed a crowd that bubbled with enthusiasm. He thanked them for the manner in which the candidates in Toronto had been supported. They had not been packed, and that they had given a verdict of guilty against the government.

Now that we have won, we will proceed to put the house in order. We will see that the men who are engaged in the various offices of the province are men thoroughly fitted for the tasks and are men able to earn the salary they get. We will see that none of the grafter and heelers and the members of the machine that have run the affairs of the province, will retain any connection with the government.

Do not profess any ill-feeling against those men who have acted properly and done what is right and are capable men, but there is a certain class of men who have been actively connected with the machine while holding official positions under the government.

CHARLIE CALDER A WINNER MAJORITY ALREADY 18 150

Enthusiastic Meetings Held in South
Ontario to Celebrate Hon. John Dryden's Defeat.

Whitby, Jan. 25.—(Special).—South Ontario has been redeemed and Charlie Calder, the Conservative standard bearer, several unsuccessful fights, has led his party to victory. He is a shrewd, successful farmer, and is a worthy representative of a rural constituency. His majority of over 1500 is the largest in the list of those who got to the streets to hear the returns, and the riding's answer to the Pickering rout. Whitby's majority of 115 is a tribute to the active work of the young Conservative Club and to the independent Liberal vote.

Enthusiastic meetings were held in the committee room and in the music hall. A strong condemnation of the active interference of the courtesous officials in the Pickering roach was emphatically pronounced to-night. Mr. County Crown-Attorney Carewell was not included in the list of those who got to the streets to hear the returns, and three cheers were given for Mr. Cleaves.

One of his committee-men, however, was heard to explain that some Liberal voters were known to have gone home to dinner, passing their polling place, but not taking the time to go in and vote.

Mr. Beattie Nesbitt was cheered to the echo by his willing workers. Later he came down town, and in the World office he addressed a crowd that bubbled with enthusiasm. He thanked them for the manner in which the candidates in Toronto had been supported.

Now that we have won, we will proceed to put the house in order. We will see that the men who are engaged in the various offices of the province are men thoroughly fitted for the tasks and are men able to earn the salary they get.

SERIOUS MEANING OF RESULT ACKNOWLEDGED BY MR. WHITNEY

Fully and Gladly Appreciates the Fact That Liberals in Large Numbers Joined in Emphatic Expression of People's Will.

Morrisburg, Jan. 25.—(Special).—In the immediate presence of the great political upheaval in the province today, I can have but little to say.

"All must acknowledge the serious meaning of this emphatic expression of the people's will. I fully and gladly appreciate the fact that Liberals in large numbers joined in this expression."

J. P. Whitney, leader of the Conservative party in the Province of Ontario, made the above statement to The World tonight.

During the evening Mr. Whitney was fairly deluged with telegraph bulletins, which kept him informed of the situation as it developed, and congratulatory messages, while his friends in town were also prompt in their demonstrations of satisfaction. Many from far-off places who wished to speak to the new premier over the long distance telephone were disappointed, as Mr. Whitney was far too busy in the messages of congratulation received was one from George Taylor, chief opposition whip at Ottawa, tendering from the Conservative members of the house of commons "heartiest congratulations from members in room 6."

MAJORITIES INCREASED. Two Hamilton Ridings Send Conservatives to the Legislature.

Hamilton, Jan. 25.—(Special).—The Conservatives made a clean sweep in Hamilton, electing both Conservatives by increased majorities.

In East Hamilton it caused no surprise that Henry Carson, K.C., should be elected by 563. His majority in 1902 was only 142.

In the West Lt.-Col. Hendrie's election was never in doubt, but that he should have run his majority in 1902 of 152 up to 423 against ex-Ald. George S. Kerr, who was regarded as a strong Liberal, was somewhat of a surprise.

In East Hamilton, Cass had a majority in every ward. These are the figures:

Ward 1	Carson, Griffin	529	489
Ward 2	Hendrie	402	379
Ward 3	Hendrie	492	742
Ward 4	Hendrie	112	99
Ward 5	Hendrie	117	88

Totals

Hendrie	255
Kerr	255
Carson	563
Griffin	563

The event was fittingly celebrated by two processions, two bands and fireworks.

WEST PETERBORO CONSERVATIVE LIBERALS REFRAIN FROM VOTING

Riding That Elected Hon. Mr. Stratton by Large Majorities
Many Times Refuses to Endorse the Ross Government.

Peterboro, Jan. 25.—(Special).—West Peterboro, which in the last election gave Hon. J. R. Stratton a majority of 1194, today elected T. E. Bradburn, Conservative, by 1287 majority, with five places to spare from all the north end of the riding, which will not change the figures to any extent.

The Liberal candidate, R. F. McWilliams, son of J. B. McWilliams, inspector of crown timber agencies, was not supported by his own party, scores of Liberals refraining from going to the polls, while scores of others voted for Mr. Bradburn.

It is 15 years since the riding went Conservative, and the jubilation to

CROWD RECEIVED RETURNS
AT PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS

"Isn't It Awful?" They Said as Power Faded Away—Robert
Jaffray's Passing Comment.

Hon. G. W. Ross was the only cabinet minister in the city yesterday. He was to be seen at the parliament buildings surrounded by a coterie of officials, and remained in his private office until the last election returns came in by special wire. It was quite evident, at an early hour, that his government was defeated, and that by 9 o'clock it became quite certain that one alternative wish of the premier had been granted by the people, and that they had elected a party with no uncertain majority. For Hon. G. W. Ross frequently expressed his desire to be returned by a good working majority, or else to see Mr. Whitney returned with a substantial majority.

There had been a general feeling of unrest among the government officials at the parliament buildings all day. A nice little luncheon had been prepared for those who, locked, refuge in the building to hear the returns, and in the lobby of the building were many prominent citizens and ladies anxiously waiting for the encouraging news which never came. Among the well-known faces in the crowd were: Dr. Gilmour, warden of the Central Prison; Dr. J. D. Clarke of the forestry department; Frank Ford, the late Premier Hardy's secretary; Thomas Gibson, director of mines; Mr. Mulvey, assistant provincial secretary; H. M. Mowat, and a host of others. A dis-creased feeling came over the gathering as the large Conservative majority kept rolling up. West Middlesex was one of the last to come, and when the majority for Premier Ross was given out at 2, there was an audible expression of "Isn't it awful!"

The Warden of the Central Prison, Robert Jaffray, who had been closest to the premier, was the last to be seen.
