A meeting of the new council of the Provincial Rifle Association will be held for the interprovincial match in June. It is probable that the meet will be held this year in Prince Edward Island. The regular meeting of the council to elect an executive will be held next month.

Dr. J. J. Hunt has been invited to be one of the judges on the occasion of the oratorical exhibition at Acadia university on the 24th. The winner in the oratorical exhibition receives the oratorical prize bequeathed to Acadia under the will of the late Ralph M. Hunt; the latest on $1000 having been left by the testator for this excellent purpose. The other judges are Dr. W. E. McIntyre, of St. John, and Mr. J. H. MacMillan, of Kentville—Halifax Mail.

The five and drum band concert at the Every Day Club hall last evening attracted a large crowd, despite the rain. In addition to the band program, there were solos by Miss Alphonse, May Alphonse, Miss Walker, Mr. Rea, and Mr. Mitchell; readings by Mr. Medinley, comic song and speech by John Salmon, songs and dances by Nye and Herley, dancing by Louis Nye, sketch by Messrs. Rea and Keith, also violin music by F. Allen. Many numbers were encored.

A PLEASANT GATHERING AT THE LANSDOWNE HOTEL

Last evening a pleasant time was spent at the Lansdowne Hotel, where the guests and friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bustin met, and several interesting and social which have been indulged in throughout the winter months. The guests present were Mrs. Bustin, at the social evening last week, with a beautiful steamer trunk, as a token of friendship and appreciation of the excellent prizes were also given to the four highest and two lowest scores of the White Club. Last night Mr. Bustin entertained the boys to a smoker in the office from 7:30 till 9:30. They then joined the ladies in the parlors, where they presented Mr. Bustin with a handsome gold-mounted umbrella. Mr. Bustin thanked them with a few well-chosen words.

Dancing was indulged in, and an excellent program was carried out by the following artists: Mr. and Mrs. Toy, from the Myrtle Hotel; Co. Opera W. Baird, readings and recitations; the Kany Kumfort, boys, piano and mandolin solos; S. Matthews, comic songs and monologues; Mrs. J. M. Roche, piano solos; Misses Murdoch and Ethel Bustin, Japanese songs in costume; and piano quartet, B. Smith, character song.

Supper was then served and the programme continued until early this morning.
