

ACCIDENTS ON LAND AND SEA AND MANY LIVES LOST

Felt in Germany.

Montreal, Oct. 7.—A special London cable says:—
 "A semi-official German union of chambers of commerce in Berlin is considering remarkable proposals by the Weisbaden chamber of commerce, to combat the Can-

...they urge the German government to forthwith approach Austria, Switzerland, Italy and other countries hit by the pre-

"The general comment here is that an such German movement is certain to precipitate a British reciprocal tariff forming the empire into a compact trade family."

"The Bulgarian crisis came at a most unfortunate moment for borrowers though happily calmer views are taken today of the prospects for a European war. The lists of the Canadian government loan of £5,000,000 closed for cash applications today, but are still open for conversion applications."

CANADIANS AND SUFFRAGE

The Attempt to Cut Out the Word "Suffrage" Failed at Congress

[illegible][illegible]

Then it having been said that the Canadian women in charge of the quinquennial call at Toronto next June did not intend to submit a discussion of the question, a petition was circulated that one entire evening should be devoted to a public discussion of woman's suffrage.

This petition was signed by the delegates of every one of the twenty-three countries represented to the executive committee, with authorities is supreme, and that body gave the final decision. The Canadian delegates thus ended what probably will be the bitterest controversy in the history of the International Council. The Canadian delegates in speaking of it said that this period of the conference was the most important and innocent action on our part would raise the question of the future of the council.

It is a striking commentary on the control and breadth of the Canadian delegates' experience and the wisdom of the conventions that this spirited contest did not lead to any serious division of the council and other delegates, not even those of the United States, who took part in the controversy.

LADY ABERDEEN FOR PRESIDENT

A question which has disturbed the International Council for years was settled at a meeting by repeating the clause in the constitution which provides for the election of a president and leaving the tenure of office to the discretion of the council. Lady Aberdeen has already been elected president of the council and it is probable that she will be elected for another term.

candidate has yet been presented who meets the essential qualifications. It is necessary to know the languages, English, French and German—to have a certain prestige to command respect in all countries; to possess knowledge of the wide and varied work of the world; to be able to give a salary and pay most of the expenses of office. Lady Aberdeen has made an excellent impression on all who have met her. She is intelligent and is personally very much admired. It is a pity that she has no opposition for the presidency.

A facsimile of the badge presented to the first International Congress of Women in 1888 was adopted as the permanent emblem of the League. It bears the letters I. C. W.

THE MEDICAL SOCIETY

The St. John Medical Society held its opening meeting of the season last night. The president, Dr. C. M. P. will read a paper on the Objects of a Medical Society.

Secretary, pointing out that usefulness might be secured. At the close of the meeting the members of the board were invited to Dr. Pratt, the members of the staff to White's where a very tempting menu was served.

A number of toasts were then honored. The King was received with musical accompaniment and the toast to the president and officers brought responses from the gentlemen. Dr. McLane, Anglican Bishop represented the "medical military" and Dr. Jackson for the Board of Examiners and Dr. Grey for the Council of Physicians and Surgeons; Drs. Ryan and McKinnis for the Hospital house surgeons.

A very interesting program of business has been prepared for the season's meetings.

the Misses Cora, Irene and Florence St. Wesley, of Toronto, arrived in the ood Tuesday on a visit to their brother, Wesley.

tion. The terrible ordeal through which he had passed bereft him of his reason. "Several days after his rescue, during his conscious moments, the captain incessantly told of his sufferings and fight for life while holding on to the frail plank. To add to the misery and danger two dogs which had been on the ship swam around after the ship went down and when daylight broke they swam to where the sole survivor was clinging to his frail life preserver, and attempted to share it with him by climbing on the plank.

"Endeavoring to keep the dogs away which meant his death if they succeeded. The captain grasping with one hand one of the dogs he choked it into insensibility, the other he succeeded in holding long enough under water to drown and once more the survivor had the plank to himself."

Sydney, Oct. 7.—Captain William J. Spurr, master of the American tug schooner George Sturges, reports the loss of his vessel on October 4. The Sturges, 417 tons, left Campbellton for New York on September 25 with laths. On October 2 and 3, in lat. 47.52 North, long. 63.52 West, encountered heavy weather.

On the 4th the Danish steamer General Consul Pallisen hove in sight but owing to the storm, could not get alongside. A life line, attached to the hat-

The crew of the Sturges were landed at Cape Ray (Nfld.) and arrived here on the steamer Bruce. Three of the crew were killed.

are Englishmen and the captain is a native of Annapolis.

OUR CHOICE

"As mayor of the town of Podnuew which is growing faster than any other town in the United States, I reply the question in your circular by saying that this is going to be a very mild winter. None of the chickens in this vicinity are growing fur, and there are "Your circular received. When a professional tramp can't hit the weather six months ahead he ought to go out the business. I have ordered a fur overcoat, ear-laps, buffalo overshoes, sleeping bags and the heaviest kind of undergarments for the coming winter, and in addition I shall carry a red-hot gas stove strapped to my back. I don't propose to found dead on the highway. I look to see every cow in America have her head frozen off before January 1."

row away that vile cigar.
o it? Tell you wot I'll do; just foller

DROPPED HIM

quart and sell 'em right in this town three. Where will be your market?
"He thought the matter over for a t asked a few questions, and then set jaw and left the house. He went stra to the telegraph office in the village sent the following dispatch to Presi

Roosevelt:
"If you don't stop the Panama C
I will stop you!"
"Well," concluded the drummer, course the President couldn't stop the nal and the only thing he had to do to announce that he didn't want wouldn't accept of another term.

"I am telling you boys this in strictest confidence, and I hope not a word of it will get out. Mr. Roosevelt is a man I admire very much, and I don't want to humiliate him by letting the public know that he was bulldozed by my uncle."

JOE KERR

Wm. Brewster

and he almost fell on me.
