GRAND NIGHT AT OPERA HOUSE

The Rejuvenation of Mary Greatly Enjoyed by Fashionable Audience.

Miss May Robson and her excellent company made an instantaneous hit last evening in their first St. John performance of "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary." It is seldom that a company of players meets the favor and approval of a large audience so quickly as was the case in the Opera House last night. From the rise of the curtain in the first act on a scene of domestic storm in Aunt Mary Watkins' house until the fall in the last act when all was harmony again, the play was heartily enjoyed, in fact so easily and naturally did the players acquit themselves that it hardly seemed like acting, but just real life.

The play hinges on the actions of Jack Denham, a harum-scarum nephew of Aunt Mary. She, good old soul, is trying to put him through college but he is expelled and suspended time and again until at last his motherly old aunt to whom he always goes in time of trouble, and whose bank account he seems very willing to have diminished, rebels against paying any more money to get him out of his scrapes and disinherits him. He goes to New York to the home of his chum, Bob Burnett, with whose sister, winsome Betty, he is deeply infatuated and there he finds his three chums Clover, Mitchell and Bob and they endeavor to get him out of his troubles. Three weeks later Aunt Mary receives a letter from Mitchell, telling about her darling nephew, Jack, being sick with the measles and straightway she goes to New York, incidentally having her pocket picked on the way.

Although the first act is very funny the second is more so when Aunt Mary begins to "see the sights." She is well taken care of by the boys and Betty who has costumed herself as a servant in order to be near the aunt of whom she has heard so much. Gradually the crusty, snappy Miss Watkins is being "rejuvenated" and in the rejuvenation everybody assisted.

The third act finds Aunt Mary back in her old home in the country. She is thoroughly rejuvenated now and pines for more of the city life. Nothing but the fanciest of gowns will satisfy her. Too much cannot be said of the excellent, wholesome comedy and clean, sparkling dialogue with which the rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" abounds. Miss Robson's acting was excellent and the members of the company were thoroughly familiar with their parts and each is a player of merit. Though the comedy element is predominant and Miss Robson makes one laugh 'till one's sides are sore, there are many serious scenes when her dear old motherly heart is touched.

Jack Storey as the nephew lived up to the part admirably. He has a good voice and his song in the second act is deserving of the applause which it received. His three chums Clover. John McMahon, Mitchell, Paul Decker; and Burnett, Arthur Deering won the favor of the audience.

As Betty Burnett, Jack's sweetheart, Miss Faye Cusick made a distinct hit. Miss Mina Saville, as Aunt Mary's servant, Lucinda, had a fine make-up and contributed much to the comedy of the play as did Harry Crowley as Joshua the hired man.

The play will be repeated this evening and will doubtless be greeted with another large audience.

Last evening's audience was a very fashionable one, some of the gowns worn being most beautiful and many of the men appeared in evening dress. President A. O. Skinner and his family occupied one of the new boxes.

The new decorations came in for their share of praise and favorable comments were heard on all sides respecting them.

MUSIC AT THE NICKEL GRAND

From a picture show to a grand concert enterprise seems to have been the happy transition of Nickel Theatre for the thousands who listened to last night's music-feast will undoubtedly aver they seldom enjoyed a programme more than that discoursed in connection with the exhibition of motion photographs. A rare treat was promised and the material evidence fully warranted the advance notices. Those who take pleasure in listening to the works of musicians, modern and oldtime, should not miss the Nickel's present bill.

The Bush Family String Quintette opened the musical list with that exquisite reverie Traumerei, by Schumann, followed by Master Melvin Bush's wonderful rendition of DeBeriot's bolero dance from the Scene de Ballet suite. The Nickel orchestra, attired in evening clothes, took up a position on the stage, augmenting the instrumentalists to fifteen members. Mr. Alfred Jones wielding the baton. Their first selection was Suppe's magnificent Poet and Peasant overture. Since the days of the Chapman festivals St. John music-lovers have not been treated to such excellent orchestral work. Miss Mary Wylie Bush was especially fine in her 'cello solo, incidental to the andante or slow movement of this number and the brilliant finish of the piece elicited rounds of applause. As an encore the original Turkish Patrol (Michaelis) was played with fine taste.

It was pleasant to once more hear St. John's fine baritone, Mr. DeWitt Cairns, in an excellent ballad—Because, by D'Hardelot, and he too was enthusiastically received. The picture bill included a pastoral drama, Out of Work, by Kalem Co.; a strong Italian drama of the middle ages, and a most ludicrous comedy. Same programme this afternoon and evening.

CURTISS LOWERS SPEED RECORD

Rheims, France, Aug. 22—Glenn H. Curtiss, the American aviator, and M. Paul Ham, representing France, divided the honors of the second day of aviation week, the former with a thrilling flight just before dusk, in which he lowered the speed record for the course, which measures six and one-fifth miles, to eight minutes 35 2-5 seconds, the latter making two impressive high altitude flights of 49 1-2 and 56 kilometers respectively in the endurance test for the Prix de la Champagne.

PAVING WORK IN FREDERICTON

Fredericton, N. B., Aug. 23.—At a special meeting of the city council this afternoon a number of applications for the position of city engineer were read and referred to a committee, who will make inquiries in regard to the qualifications of the applicants and report at the next regular meeting. The mayor read a communication from Engineer Barbour, who called attention to the importance of having an engineer capable of looking after the filtration plant.

A petition from leading ratepayers was presented asking that the pavement on Queen street be extended from Carleton street to York. After some discussion the council adopted the resolution to go on with the work, providing the dominion and local governments defray fifty per cent. of the cost of paving the street in front of their properties. The mayor submitted a letter from the minister of public works promising that his department would defray half the cost of paving in front of the military property. A committee was appointed to interview the local government in regard to the matter. A ten year guarantee bond for $2,500 for the paving work now under contract was submitted by Robert S. Low. It was signed by R. Chestnut & Sons, A. E. Massie, F. E. Winslow, of this city; Dr. Johnson and C. R. Moore, of Sydney. Several of the aldermen took the ground that the city should have a guarantee bond instead of the one submitted. The matter was briefly discussed and it was decided by a vote of five to four to reject the bond. Ald. Farrell pointed out that the council had really settled the question at a previous meeting by referring it to the committee and such committee had approved of the Low's bondsmen. Reference to members showed that he was correct, and after briefly discussing the matter the council adjourned until tomorrow without coming to a decision.

Mrs. Montgomery, wife of Rev. H. Montgomery, formerly rector of Kingsclear, but now of Port Hope (Ont.), is critically ill at that place.

Applications for space at the Fredericton Exhibition are pouring in and it promises to be most successful. W. B. Howard of the C. P. R., will be here this week to arrange for a special train service.

About 300 students are expected to attend the Normal School next term. The school will open on September 1.

Col. Chinic returned today after a two months' sojourn at Saratoga Springs.

Dr. Frank Enfield, of Washington, who is connected with the United States weather bureau, was a passenger to this city by boat today. He is investigating conditions of the rivers of eastern Canada, and Maine, collecting information for the United States weather bureau. He was much pleased with the sail on the river and upon arrival here interviewed Mayor Chestnut in regard to matters pertaining to the river. He goes to Woodstock in the morning and thence on to Edmundston and other points.

Douglas, the five year old son of Robt. W. McLellan, fell down the piazza at his home this afternoon, a distance of fifteen feet, sustaining injuries of a serious nature. A wrist was fractured and the doctors fear concussion of the brain.

H. P. Timmerman, industrial agent of the C. P. R., is here tonight and will start tomorrow in company with A. B. Wilmot and A. R. Slipp, M. P., on a driving tour through Queens and Sunbury counties.
