A LEADING

FEATURE

For years we have been noted for our RINGS. Our values are only one of the good features. The style of our mountings are as advanced, the workmanship as fine as can be had for money.

We have succeeded in building up the finest ring trade in the city by attending especially to the wants of our clients.

Today we sell better stones for very little more money than were to be had here ten years ago.

We have recently stocked a fine line of DIAMOND CLUSTERS, HOOPS and SOLITARES, To-day our stock is complete. It's unique. We know of nothing on the market that we cannot duplicate.

STERN MEASURES NECESSARY

The British government has decided to segregate all un-naturalized alien men of military age in the United Kingdom, and send the older men and many of the women and children to their own country. In the present temper of the British people, following the Lustania horror, the bombardment of peaceful towns and villages, and other crimes committed by the Germans, this action appears to have been forced upon the government. The government and people had been very tolerant. German prisoners of high rank, on parole, had

In great beauty of tone.

A splendid programme by some of the city's leading talent supplemented the organ recttal and the whole proved a thorough artistic success.

G. A. Munro, tenor, was heard in "The Penitent," Mrs. Murray Long, soprano, in "O Divine Redeemer"; Mrs. Hugh Cannell, contralto, in "But, the Lord is Mindful"; Mrs. L. Murray Curren, soprano, in "Hear Ye, Israel" and again in a duet with J. Percy Cruikshank, tenor, in "Love Divine"; Mrs. 'T. J. Gunn, violin, in Wienauski's "Legende"; Victor Shonoman, treble, in "I Will Sing of Thy Great Mercies"; S. Herbert Mayes, basso, in "Land of Hope and Glory"; and Miss M. G. Wyles, contralto, in "Come unto Me."
