AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

A GIRL OF THE MOUNTAINS
 A good sized audience saw A Girl of the Mountains at the Opera House last night. The play is by Leon B. Parker and is a society drama in four acts, full of power and interest. It was well put on. A Girl of the Mountains is not a rough western play, as the title might denote, but a peculiarly pleasing story of a young mountain girl, who is transported into the city's social life. Clever dialogue woven around a skilfully constructed plot makes it a play well worth seeing.

NEXT CENSUS OF CANADA IN 1911

Will Embrace Many Subjects—Schedules Expected to Show Almost Complete Life History of Inhabitants of the Dominion

The next census of Canada will be taken under date of June 1, 1911, and will embrace the subjects of population, mortality, agriculture, manufactures, minerals, fisheries and dairy products. Population will be recorded under the heads of residence and personal description, citizenship, nationality and religious profession, occupation and trade or means of living, wage-earnings and insurance, education and language spoken, and infirmities.

Every person living on June 1 will be entered on the schedule of population by name, as member of a family, institution or household, together with place of habitation, sex, relationship to head of the family or household, and whether single, married, widowed, divorced or legally separated. The month of birth, year of birth and age at last birthday will also be recorded.

Entries will be made for each person to show the country or place of birth, year of immigration to Canada if born overseas, year of naturalization if formerly an alien, and also racial or tribal origin, nationality and religion. Every person of alien birth who has become a naturalized citizen is a Canadian by nationality, and every British subject with residence in Canada, as well as every native Canadian, who has acquired citizenship by birth or naturalization, is also a Canadian by nationality. But there is no Canadian by racial or tribal origin, unless the Indians are so counted.

Every person having an occupation or trade will be entered for it, but if employed in the census year at some other occupation for part or whole time he will be so recorded also. If the person is working on own account, the entry will be so made. An entry is also required to be made showing where the person is employed, as on farm, in woolen mill, at country shop, in drug store, etc.

Wage-earners are entered to show the number of weeks employed in 1910 at chief occupation, and the rate per hour when employed; if any; the hours of working time per week at other than chief occupation, or at other occupation if any; the total earnings in 1910 at chief occupation; the total earnings at other than chief occupation; and the rate per hour when employed by the hour.

Entries are required to be made for each person showing the amount of insurance held at date of the census upon life, as well as against accident or sickness, together with the cost of such insurance in the census year.

Under the heading of education and language records will be taken for every person of five years of age and over, showing the number of months at school in 1910, and if the person can read and write, and the language commonly spoken by each person. The cost of schooling in 1910 for persons over sixteen years of age at college, convent or university is also called for.

The last question on the schedule of population relates to infirmities. It calls for a record of every person having an infirmity. If blind, deaf and dumb, crazy or lunatic, idiotic or silly, a record thereof will be made in the proper column, and the age at which the infirmity appeared is required to be specified.

PALEFACE'S WOOING AT THE LYRIC

The bright and sly little Star theater in Union Hall, North End, will wind up this week with a programme of picture features certainly beyond the ordinary in quality. In the first place there will be the emotional Biograph drama along the line of Hall Caine's The Christian, entitled To Save Her Soul, and in addition the Western special story by Rex Beach, entitled Shyness of Shorty. Those who are familiar with the old time verses And the Barbs Kept on Shaving, will be pleased with the picturization of this rhyme in Mr. Bumpious on Birds. The Indian drama The Paleface's Wooing, is a big matinee for the children. Mr. Bumpious on Birds will sing and on Saturday afternoon there will be a big matinee for the children.

GRAND INDIAN HISTORICAL TALK AT "UNIQUE"
 The programme that the "Unique" has in store for its patrons today and tomorrow gives promise of being one of the very best presented at this popular place of big matinees for the children. To head the bill as grand Indian historical talk, "The White Captive," by the Knappe Co., has been booked. The story captures a frontier home, an Indian girl, captures a white girl and a thrilling rescue. Apart from a valuable Indian study this subject has merits of its own as a good story. "The White Captive" is a "Vita story" and will be found to contain many thrilling scenes. A Vitagraph comedy come next, entitled Wilson's Wife, when Miss Florence Turner, the charming stage and screen actress, will appear. It is the tale of a woman's life, a story of the most provoking farces will follow. Wilson's Wife is a beautiful comedy. Wilson's Wife will be followed by Wilson's Wife, which will be followed by Wilson's Wife.

MORNING LOCALS

At a meeting of the Building Trades Council in the Mason's Hall, Brussels street last evening, it was decided to send circulars to all members of the City Bank, asking them to be present at the next meeting. It is hoped to have the plumbers' form union to unite with the other unions. The question of holding a labor parade was taken up, but no action was taken. Another meeting will likely be held next week.

The annual inspection of the 3rd Regiment of the C. A. took place last night, and there was a large turnout. Major A. G. Ogilvie, R. C. A., was the inspecting officer.

The local staff of the London Life Association, with their wives, had supper last night at White's. With a good programme of songs and speeches, an enjoyable evening was spent.

A detective of the Pinkerton Agency has been quietly working in the city for some days, his presence having to do with a person wanted by the Massachusetts authorities in connection with the looting of the Cambridge (Mass.) City Bank, for which George W. Coleman, the young accountant, and "Bill" Keeler, the Boston man, are serving prison sentences. He spent one night at the Salvation Army Metropole and left last evening, after having located his man. In conversation with a reporter, when suspicions were aroused, he admitted that he was a member of the Pinkerton staff, and showed his badge pinned in the inside coat pocket, and also produced a card of the Pinkertons.

Superintendent H. C. Creighton, of the Canadian Express Company, came in from Campbellton yesterday. The whole town, Mr. Creighton says, is on a heap of ashes. There is, he says, some little pilfering and many cases of petty thievery were reported, but nobody was arrested. Several cartloads of provisions arrived, but many packages intended for the sufferers were stolen. The work of distributing the provisions was very interesting. His staff were kept busy distributing parcels, which had to be done from a box car. The company Mr. Creighton said, were delivering parcels addressed to Campbellton people, free of charge. Work has already been started on the I. C. R. station house, and the company expect to have a shed built in a few days.
