EXECUTED IN MEXICO

Mexico City, June 11.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—Few summary executions marked the latest revolution. Unconfirmed reports tell of some in Tabasco but only four have thus far been confirmed. They were those by Carranza troops in Pachuca of four Oregon leaders; Colonel Cuervo Ramirez, Captain Marcelino Ramirez, Captain Eduardo Espinosa and Major Vicente Espinosa Paz.

FALSE TEETH BARRED BY FRANCE AS LUXURY.

Paris, June 7.—The 10,000,000 false teeth exported yearly from the United States, which have been classed here as luxuries and subject to importation prohibitions, will add at least 100 per cent. to the cost of Parisian dentistry.

French dentists are dismayed at their inability to meet the demands and are protesting to the Chamber of Deputies, demanding the abrogation of the decree. They point out that the French output of false teeth is less than a million a year, and that the British are able to supply only 10 per cent. of the number required to prevent France from becoming a nation of lactarians.

Ha-Ha-Ha-Ha!

(A Laughing Trombone)

Did you ever hear a trombone laugh? Well! Harry Raderman has the only one in captivity and it's a wonder. You just simply have to laugh when you hear it—This is certainly one of the greatest dance numbers ever issued and is bound to be a success.
