INJURING HIS HEENS
Several valuable hens owned by Frederick Robertson of Rothersey, have been injured about the neck recently, and he is at a loss to understand what kind of an animal is responsible for the damage. Mr. Robertson has more than 200 hens in his poultry yard, and it is known as the owner of some of the finest breeds in New Brunswick, that it will easily be understood that his loss is important when he finds some of his prize birds with their wings mutilated. A watch is being kept to learn the cause.

Thomas McCollough, superintendent of the dog show held in the Queens rink several weeks ago, left today for New Glasgow where he will act as judge at the dog show there. H. T. Sheehan and LeBaron Wilson had intended sending 200 hens to this show, but according to the rules, all outside dogs are barred. Several of those whose dogs won certificates in the show here have not yet called for them, and the secretary J. Vermer McLellan wishes that they would do so at their earliest convenience.

He is survived, besides his wife, by two sons, Seymour and William, and one grandson.

COLD WEATHER IS PREDICTED

Drop of Twenty Five Degrees in Twelve Hours—Wind Last Night Had 50 Mile Velocity

If the weather man says right, you had better rearsure your furs and winter garments, for he has predicted clearer and much colder weather for us after yesterday's storm. The rain-fall yesterday and early this morning amounted to only two-tenths of an inch. The wind, however, during the night blew a gale, reaching a velocity of fifty miles an hour between four and half-past five o'clock this morning. Practically all night long the wind howled and whistled and signboards and fences throughout the city were laid low. It started blowing from the southeast, but changed to southwest and then to north-west. At midnight the thermometer registered fifty-six degrees, but at noon today it had dropped to thirty-three degrees, making a decline of twenty-five degrees in twelve hours. The wind at noon was blowing strongly from the northwest.

SEES GOOD SEASON ON THE INTERCOLONIAL

Mr. Tiffin Says the Grain Contracts Already Exceed the Whole of Last Winter's

E. Tiffin, of the I. C. R. board of commissioners, arrived in the city yesterday and left for his home in Moncton on the noon train today. In conversation with a Times reporter Mr. Tiffin said that the prospects were exceedingly bright for a record business on the I. C. R. this winter. "We have already contracted to ship one million and a quarter bushels of grain through the port of St. John during the season, and we expect to have considerably more than this before the season closes. The contracts so far express our entire shipment through this port last season, so you see we will be kept quite busy."

"At the present time we are a little short of freight cars, but we expect to be able to overcome this difficulty before the rush starts. The ships at Moncton are all going full blast, and every department of the road expects to have an exceptionally busy winter."

PILOT CENSURED

Report on the Grounding of the Lake Champlain in St. Lawrence

Quebec, Que., Nov. 12—Capt. L. A. Demers, Dominion wreck commissioner, after an investigation into the recent grounding of the steamer Lake Champlain, just off the levee at Montreal, has censured Albert Gagnon, the pilot.

Although the court held that he had exercised commendable precaution in dropping anchor, he committed an error of judgment in not more precisely deciding his position.

BAPTIST WOMEN'S WORK FOR MISSIONS

At a meeting of the executive of the Women's Missionary Union on Saturday afternoon, encouraging reports on the work accomplished during the last quarter were presented. Mrs. D. Hutchings, president, occupied the chair. The report submitted by Miss Augusta Shipp of Central Hampton, who has been touring York and Carleton counties as evangelist superintendent, spoke of encouraging success which had greeted her efforts in organizing in those places. She had visited many places and had organized eight new societies and three new mission bands.

Miss Flora Clarke, returned missionary from Bimlipatan, India, reported that she was much pleased with the result of her efforts in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, where she had instituted several new societies. Particularly in P. E. Island the work was going along well.

Among those present at the meeting were Mesdames J. H. McDonald and W. G. Clarke, of Fredericton, and Mrs. G. W. Lawson of Moncton.

FREDERICTON MEN DID NOT LIKE CHECKS

Fredericton, Nov. 12—(Special)—A man who registered at the Queen hotel on Saturday as from Ottawa offered checks in exchange for goods. He made some purchases but afterwards returned the goods and the money which he received as change, without a protest. The checks were made out on the Ottawa branches of the Imperial and Nova Scotia banks.

A strong wind and rain storm swept over the city early this morning. The wind had a velocity of forty miles an hour.

ST. PETER'S Y. M. A.

St. Peter's Y. M. A.—OFFICE IMPROVED
In the rooms of St. Peter's Y. M. A., Douglas avenue, yesterday afternoon, an inspiring address on "The Secret of Success" was delivered by Joseph Harrington, principal of St. Malachi's school, before a large and attentive audience. The speaker dwelt on the habits of a young man aspiring to attain success in life, and dealt with what his ideals and ambitions should be. He referred to sobriety, energy, perseverance, good morals, honesty, and other characteristics as necessary in order for a young man to attain success in life. The speaker referred to the careers of great and famous men, and told how many of them had had a humble beginning.

The lecture was much enjoyed by the large audience present, and valuable suggestions and advice were given by the speaker, and much practical matter was discussed. A hearty resolution of thanks moved by E. K. Henson and seconded by A. J. Duffy, was tendered the speaker at the close of his address by the chairman, J. B. Dever.
