THE FUNCTIONS OF LAST EVENING

A LARGE ATTENDANCE AT THE RECEPTION

About Five Hundred Citizens Presented to His Excellency-Victoria Was Brilliantly Illuminated.

(From Tuesday's Times.) Never did Victoria present a prettier picture by night than it did last evening. The illuminations of the streets and of the parliament buildings in nearly an hour. honor of the visit of His Excellency the Governor-General could not well have been surpassed. With strings of incandescent lights across the streets, the arches brilliantly lit up along the route to the parliament buildings, the with whom he was acquainted. streets crowded with citizens and the weather conditions perfect, the scene the rotunda. was one which could not well be improved upon.
