SECRETS OF EMPIRE

DIE WITH EUGENIE

Former Empress of the French Deceals She Will Not Write Her Memoirs.

PARIS, July 26.—The ex-Empress Eugenie has just returned to England after a stay of a few weeks in Paris. While here the ex-empress paid a long visit to the Matignon to the chateau where the Empress Josephine lived after the divorce. The place is now a Napoleonic museum, and the ex-empress has presented to it many souvenirs of her husband.

M. P. C. Pietri, the private secretary of the ex-empress, has issued here the following notice, addressed from Farnborough:

"For some time the empress has been receiving many letters from people who asked permission to publish her memoirs or to translate them into foreign languages. In order to reply to these requests and to put an end to them, I am instructed by her majesty to state that she has not written, and will never write, any memoirs."

GERMANS DECLARE

BIG DIAMOND WAR

BERLIN, July 25.—A conference took place yesterday between Herr Dernburg, imperial secretary for the colonies, and several members of the Reichstag regarding the diamonds which have been found in German Southwest Africa.

According to official estimates the value of diamonds existing in German Southwest Africa is approximately $250,000,000, and Herr Dernburg has formed a ring of all companies, firms and individuals, numbering between 400 and 500, interested in the diamond industry.

The importance of a coalition so great caused the De Beers Company to approach Herr Dernburg with a proposal for mutual agreement regarding the prices of diamonds. Herr Dernburg rejected the advances made by the company on the ground that it would be possible for Germans not only to fix their own diamond prices independently of the De Beers, but even to dictate their own prices to the De Beers Company.

The deputies who were present at the conference expressed unanimous approval of Herr Dernburg's policy.

LATHAM FAILS WHEN VICTORY IS IN SIGHT

DOVER, July 27.—Hubert Latham's second attempt to fly across the English channel ended disastrously today. Almost in the moment of victory, his monoplane fluttered down into the sea, two miles beyond the Admiralty pier, like a bird with a broken wing. Thousands of people crowding the waterfront saw the fall and for nearly half an hour they are kept in suspense, not knowing whether the daring aviator had met death or had again been rescued from the water.

A flock of large and small craft raced to the scene of the disaster, and a pinnacle from the British battleship Russell picked up the unlucky flier and put him aboard a French torpedo boat destroyer. After a surgeon had attended to his injuries, Latham was brought ashore and he was taken to the Lord Warden Hotel. His face was lacerated and bleeding and his nose was broken. The machine, badly wrecked, was hoisted from the boat to the dock.

Eccelest Brier

Latham's flight, to the moment of its sensational finish, in some respects resembled Brier's. He made greater speed, being only 20 minutes in the air from the time he left the coast of France. Apparently he steered a straighter course than Brier as he was making directly for Dover when he fell.

The disastrous ending of the flight furnished a dramatic scene, and hundreds of people had gathered here, many of them carrying telescopes, marine and field glasses and cameras. Soon two French torpedo boats which preceded the aeroplane were seen approaching at a furious pace, thick clouds of smoke puffing from their funnels.

Fourteen minutes after six an alrship was discovered heading straight for the centre of the town. The rapidity of its flight was evidenced by the quickness with which it grew larger and assumed bird-like outlines. Suddenly it began to slacken speed, at the same time gliding toward the surface of the ocean. It fluttered a few times and fell like a wounded eagle.

The aviator dropped with a lateral incline to the sea. There it floated, although only those with glasses could make out that it had not sunk. The excitement while the boats were darting to the rescue was intense, but soon a fleet of all kinds of craft had gathered around the wreck. It was nearly 8 o'clock when a torpedo boat came alongside the Prince of Wales pier to land Latham and his machine, which was seen to be much larger than Brier's little flyer and the crowd cheered and cheered hero enthusiastically. He was followed to the hotel by thousands, all trying to learn the details of the accident.

Physician in attendance tonight

reported that Latham had three stitches in his forehead and two in his nose, but he did not believe that the aviator was greatly hurt. Latham returned to Canada by the midnight boat.

PICNICKERS HAVE ENJOYABLE TIME

Three Churches Hold Their Annual Summer Outings

LARGE CROWDS

Three annual church picnic were held yesterday, and all three were well attended, and very enjoyable.

The largest outing from Fairville Presbyterian Church, which was held at Westfield Beach yesterday. A feature of the day was a game of ball between the C. P. R. engineers and the Fairville Rovers. The game proved to be a victory for the C. P. R. men, they having triumphed over the Rovers, with a score of 4 to 0, thus carrying off a six prize which had been offered. The Fairville and games were indulged in, the following being the winners of the prizes: Bunny in the hole, Miss Campbell; short gun, Miss Winifred Allingham; air gun, Mr. Robert Campbell. Mrs. McCormick and Miss Lawson were the leaders at the bean bags, but it is undecided which of the two is entitled to the prize. Both are claimants.

One of the largest crowds ever seen at the Fairville Rovers picnic was present at the picnic of the congregation of the Church of Assumption, yesterday, which was a success in every way. The usual games and sports formed a feature of the picnic table were Miss B. Fitzgerald, Miss Vera Fitzgerald, Miss Susie Murphy, Miss M. Murphy, Miss M. Morrisey, Miss K. Graham, Miss Kate Fitzgerald and Miss Bella Wilson and the Masses.

At the table from which ice cream and refreshments were served the following ladies were in charge: Miss M. Murphy, Miss Nellie Coyle, Miss K. Murphy, Miss Katie Fitzgerald, Miss K. Haley and Mrs. B. Curtis.

The annual Sunday school picnic of St. Matthew's Church was held at Watters' Landing. The steamer Hampton, which was chartered for the occasion, carried about two hundred and fifty merry makers to the picnic grounds, and another large contingent left on the afternoon trip. A pleasant day was spent up river, and the enjoyment was all that could be desired. Ideal weather and no casualties were special features of all three outings.

PICTURE POSTCARD

CUPID'S MESSENGER

Man Falls in Love With It and Travels 6000 Miles to Woo Original.

LONDON, July 26.—A bridegroom who traveled 6,000 miles to woo a girl who had been married yesterday at Tregehan, a little village near St. Austell, Cornwall, was the subject of a startling photograph which was the subject of a picture postcard, there was the photograph of Miss Rosina Harper, a laughing girl of 15.

The next move was made by Mrs. Phillips, one of the villagers. As her daughter's picture also appeared in the postcard, she sent a copy to her son, who was in a miner's camp in British Columbia. It passed round the camp as postcards from home are wont to do, until it reached "Tony" Metassa, a handsome six-foot Neapolitan, who was, however, a naturalized British subject.

Even "the lady passing by" of whom Herrick sings could not have captivated her swain more suddenly than the picture of smiling Rosina. Harper captured young Metassa.

He asked his friend Phillips whether he might send a line to Cornwall in the next letter home. Phillips readily consented, and so Miss Harper received her first letter from her unknown lover.

There were other letters to and from the mines' camp.

At last there came one to Cornwall which spoke of a coming visit to England. Metassa said how anxious he was to see the sights of the country, but when he landed close in the wake of his letter he did not seem particularly anxious to visit the Tower and Stratford-on-Avon. Instead he hurried down to Tregehan, which is quite out of the track of the ordinary tourist.

It was not very long afterward that Tregehan was formally told what had happened, and all preparations began for a good old-fashioned village wedding. The village yesterday was a scene of merriment and merriment, and the whole population was at the church to see the bridegroom from abroad take away his Cornish bride.

There will be a week's honeymoon, and then Metassa will go back to British Columbia to lay the foundation of his "pile," and to get a little home ready for his bride when she follows him out.

The Doctor—I and a great many more patients this time last year; wonder where they have all gone? His Wife.—We can only hope for the best, dear.—Illustrated Bits.

AMUSEMENTS

NICKEL'S BIG PICTURE BILL

This afternoon and tonight at the Nickel Theatre there will be a new programme of motion pictures of which the strong melodrama, "Driven From Home," will be the leading feature. This is a picture exceeding 700 feet in length, every foot of which is brimful of enthralling interest, and will be considered one of the best pictures of the season. The "New Cop" is a film of the most hilarious kind, and like numerous other comedies from the laboratories of the S. & A. Co., Chicago, is entirely novel and full of side-splitting surprises. Still another funny picture from Chicago is entitled "Which is Which?" Holmes and Buchanan will today conclude their comedy number, "Remember You," and Mr. Buchanan will sing "The Absinthe Frappe," from Victor Herbert's "It Happened in Norway," for the last time. DeWitt Cairns, whose fine baritone voice has been gladly welcomed back to St. John, will be heard again in the illustrated ballad, "When I Dream of the Gloaming of You." It is expected Master Pat Harrington will be able to resume his songs either tonight or on Thursday afternoon when he will be heard in another sketch along with Miss Holmes and Mr. Buchanan. This new number is so true to life that it is a pity that it is not a picture. "If You'll Remember Me" from "The Ragged Dicks." The "Shogun" number is to be Japanese in character and very pretty.

LAST TIME FOR TODAY'S SHOW

NEW ONE FOR TOMORROW

AT H. H. H.

It was an applause again last night at the H. H. H. A sure sign that the show has made a hit was the fact that the audience was very much larger than on Monday night. The Berinis will be heard today for the last time in their present programme. Tomorrow they will present their farewell programme. Rose & Rose, who are now doing a hand balancing act, will do a comedy clown tumbling act and Fortin-Brown, who are doing a Roman Ring act will do lifting and posing. Les Bellingers, the original flag painters of Paris, will also make new pictures, so that tomorrow and for the balance of the week, the programme is an entire change from that given the first half of the week. Those who have not yet seen this show should not neglect doing so today. So confident is the management that the show is worth more than the price of admission that they will refund the price of admission to anyone dissatisfied.

HUNDREDS LAUGHED UNTIL THEY WERE TIRED LAST NIGHT

"The Sidelings" have taken the by-accident. They made hundreds of people laugh themselves sore last night with that great laugh producer "The Eccentric." "The Eccentric" is a comedy of the "Gaiety" type. It was very noticeable the number of people who were at the performance Monday night and who came again last night. Once you see this you will say that it is the best that has been seen in St. John for some time. Don't fail to see "The Sidelings" if you want to enjoy a good hearty laugh. Complete change of pictures today. Big orchestra.

"ESCAPE FROM PRISON" AT STAR THEATRE

One of the most thrilling escapes from prison in history was the freeing of the soldiers in the American Civil War at Andersonville. The picture is complete in dramatic detail, enthralling interest and making one of the most wonderful occurrences. This picture is the leading feature at Star Theatre tonight and tomorrow, but there will be three other fine films. Miss Ballard, soprano, and fine music. New vocal set Monday.

MONTROSE HAS A CLOSE CALL

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 27.—The Canadian Pacific Railway steamer Montrose, London, via Newport for Montreal, reported from Cape Race this morning after an enforced halt for four days for the purpose of effecting temporary repairs following a collision with a giant ice pillar. The plight of the steamer, which is conveying passengers and freight from Europe to Montreal has not been known here until last night reported standing by the Montrose for four days off Cape Race and helping to repair the damage. Those repairs, which necessarily are of but a temporary nature, were not finished until midnight and the Montrose got under way early this morning. So far as is known here, no person was injured.

Recalling from the impact with the towering mass of irregularly-formed ice the Montrose was seriously crippled. Both bows were telescoped and the haux-pipes entirely destroyed. The forepeak was flooded except for the compartments in the bow of the ship, the water did not cause much damage.

ANDY WELCH NOW OWNS THE READVILLE TRACK

READVILLE, Mass., July 27.—Andy Welch, of Hartford, Conn., has bought the interest of his partner, Orlando Jones, of New York, in the Readville race track and is now the sole owner, according to a despatch from Mrs. Welch received by Secretary Jewett of the race track today. Work on the improvements at the track which have been suspended for a month will be resumed immediately.
