

ART CLUB EXHIBITION IN PEEL ST. STUDIO ATTRACTS ATTENTION

Miss Alice Haggarty With Class of Ten Seniors Congratulated.

CONTINUED TODAY.

Work Shows Reflects Credit on Students and Teachers.

There was a good attendance yesterday at the studio of the Art Club, Peel street, when the season's work of the art school was exhibited.

Miss Haggarty, with a class of ten seniors, and Miss Holt, with five juniors in her class, were recipients of congratulations for their painstaking efforts in instructing the young people.

Some of the sketches are from life, this being the first season that students have taken up this branch of art.

As a supplementary feature of the exhibition some very fine water color sketches by Miss Kirk, an English artist, are on view.

Particularly pleasing landscapes shown at the studio are "The Doe at Llangollen, North Wales," which is considered by some to be the gem of the collection, and "A Shack at Vancouver."

The studio yesterday was tastefully decorated with flowers, and refreshments were served.

PATRIOTIC SUNDAY OBSERVED IN ST. GEORGE

Patriotic Sunday brought out the Presbyterians of St. George in full strength, the church was fully decorated with the flags of the allies.

OBITUARY.

Sympathy will be expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Finnermore, of 575 Main street, in the death of their infant son, Albert Theodore, who passed away on Wednesday evening after a short illness from meningitis.

The death of Michael Cohen occurred on Wednesday night at his residence, 155 Erin street, after a long illness. He was a native of Szig, Ireland, but had been resident in this city for years.

On May 23 at Greer, St. John county, Mrs. Herbert Brown died, aged 68 years. She leaves, besides her husband, one brother, George, of this

LADIES' ORCHESTRAL CLUB PRESENTS FINE MUSICAL PROGRAMME

Centenary Hall Well Filled With Lovers of Music

CONCERT IS SUCCESS.

Proceeds Will be Given to the Patriotic Fund

For twenty-three years the Salada Tea Company has championed the cause of freshness and cleanliness in tea.

A large number attended the funeral of Mrs. Robert Thomson yesterday afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Annie Phinney took place yesterday morning from the residence of her parents, 156 Sheffield street, St. John.

The funeral of Mrs. Martin L. Peters took place yesterday morning from her late residence, Dorchester street, to the Cathedral where requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. M. O'Brien.

The success of the concert was greatly augmented by Miss Knight, whose excellent soprano voice evidenced perfect training.

Music lovers and the public in general were provided with a splendid musical treat last night in the Centenary Hall, St. John, by the Ladies' Orchestral Club, assisted by Mrs. Kent Scott, pianist, and Miss Louise Knight, soprano.

The musicians well deserve the highest praise for the way in which they handled the most difficult selections.

Under the baton of their conductor, William C. Bowden, they skilfully played Gillet's two pieces Patroville Enfantine, and La Tospie.

The success of the concert was greatly augmented by Miss Knight, whose excellent soprano voice evidenced perfect training.

Down in the Forest. "Blackbird's Song," "The Land of the Sky Blue Water" and "Rest et Air de la de l'Enfant Prodiges."

Mrs. Bowdler was honored as a result of her perfect handling of "Mistral," "Butterflies," "Lotus Land," "Skyark" and "Marche Militaire," the latter being an exceedingly testing piece from which, however, the talented pianist was able to produce the very best result.

The orchestra concluded the evening's performance with the national anthem.

Considering that the club is only a new organization, whose aim is to produce only the best music, they are indeed to be congratulated on their splendid performance.

The success of the concert was greatly augmented by Miss Knight, whose excellent soprano voice evidenced perfect training.
