DIRECTORS' REPORT FOR 1891.

Mr President and Gentlemen:—
Your directors in presenting the 102d annual report are pleased to congratulate the Society on its increased membership; its improved finances and the superior advantiges now enjoyed by the members, in the use of thoroughbred animals. The Society controls three thoroughbred animals. The Society controls three thoroughbred shortened white Yorkshire boar, and owns a thoroughbred Jersey bull, a thoroughbred white Yorkshire boar, and owns a thoroughbred imported Shropshire ram; for which $50 was paid at the government auction sale in Halifax at quer that also. the close of the exhibition.
