

Handwritten stenographic notes in Canadian shorthand, enclosed in a rectangular border. The text is organized into two main sections, each beginning with a header line. The first section starts with the header "ع ن" (E N) and contains approximately 15 lines of shorthand. The second section starts with the header "ع ن" (E N) and contains approximately 12 lines of shorthand. The shorthand consists of various symbols, including lines, curves, and dots, representing letters and words.
