

Que., 16 May, 1833. Ed. there. Unmarried. Is editor and proprietor of the Pembroke Observer. An unsuccessful candidate for present seat, Oct., 1869. First returned at last g.e. "A Liberal in every sense of the term," and opposed to present Government.—Beachburg, Ont.

FISSET, JEAN BAPTISTE ROMUALD, M.D. [Rimouski]

S. of Henri Fiset, Esq., J.P. of St. Cuthbert Que. B. there, 7 Feb., 1842. Ed. at Montreal College; graduated as M.D. at Laval University. M. Aimee, dau. of Honoré Plamondon, Esq., of Quebec. Is a town councillor of Rimouski, and Surgeon, Provisional Batt. Rimouski Militia. An unsuccessful candidate for Rimouski in Local Assembly, April, 1872. First returned to Parlt., for present seat, at last g.e. A Conservative, and a supporter of the present Govt.—St. Germain de Rimouski, Que.

FLEMING, GAVIN, J.P., [North Brant.]

S. of the late Mr. John Fleming, by Margaret Dobbie, who came to Can., from Scot., 1831. B. at the farm of Shieldhill, near Falkirk, Stirlingshire, Scot., 5 June, 1826. Ed. at Falkirk. Came to Can., 1849, and for 20 years was a merchant at Glenmorris; retired from business, 1871. Was Treasurer of South Dumfries for 4 years. First