

offence has been committed, and shall upon conviction thereof upon oath of the complainant and of one other competent witness, be subject to a penalty of two pounds ten shillings and costs, for the first conviction, and for every subsequent conviction to the penalty of five pounds and costs; and in default of payment of such penalty within ten days after conviction, such penalty, together with the costs shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party or parties convicted, and if no goods or chattels be found, then the party or parties convicted shall be imprisoned in the Common Gaol of the District or County in which he or they reside for a space not less than twenty days, nor exceeding one calendar month, unless the fine and costs be sooner paid: Provided, nevertheless, that the party or parties so convicted may appeal to the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the District or County held next after such conviction, and the said Court may confirm or quash such conviction, with costs.

How levied or enforced.

Proviso :
Appeal given.

III. And be it enacted, That all moneys collected under this Act for penalties, shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the District or County wherein the offence was committed, for the use of the same.

Application of penalties.