

Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in His Majesty's Customs; and in another Act, made and passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act to repeal so much of the Act intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in His Majesty's Customs, passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of King Charles the Second, in Ships which, before May 1, 1786, belonged to His Majesty's Dominions, &c.

as relates to the prohibiting the Importation of Deal Boards and Fir Timber from Germany; either in Ships or Vessels which, before the first Day of May One thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, did truly and without Fraud wholly belong to His Majesty's Dominions, or which are of the Built of His Majesty's Dominions, and registered respectively according to Law, or in Ships or Vessels the Built of any Countries or Places in Europe belonging to or under the Dominion of the Sovereign or State in Europe of which the said Goods or Commodities, so enumerated or described as aforesaid, are the Growth, Production, or Manufacture respectively, or of such Ports where the said Goods or Commodities can only be, or are most usually first shipped for Transportation, such Ships or Vessels being navigated with a Master and Three fourths of the Mariners, at the least, belonging to such Countries or Places, or Ports respectively, and in none other Ships or Vessels whatever; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons whatever to import or bring into Great Britain from Gibraltar, in any Ship or Vessel which, before the first Day of May One thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, did truly without Fraud wholly belong to His Majesty's Dominions, or are of the Built of His Majesty's Dominions, navigated and registered according to Law, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, being the Growth or Production of the Dominions of the Emperor of Morocco, and which shall have been imported into Gibraltar directly from any Part of the said Dominions not lying or being to the Southward

Goods of Morocco imported into Gibraltar, may be imported from thence, in Ships built in His Majesty's Dominions, or Ships belonging thereto, prior to May 1, 1786, on Payment of the same Duties as if imported from Africa;
