

St. Lawrence Hall.

Who has not heard of the old St. Lawrence Hall Hotel, on St. James street, kept by that prince of hosts, Mr. Henry Hogan. The Hall has long been looked upon as one of the most popular resorts for the traveling public, and within its walls many of the most famous people of the old and new world have made their abode.

Queen's Hotel.

This popular house is in close proximity to both the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific Railway depots, as well as all the leading banks, postoffice and places of amusement. The building is fire-proof throughout, and has recently been refurnished in the most elegant manner. No effort has been spared to make the Queen's one of the most comfortable and up-to-date hotels in the Dominion.
