"East, West, home's best"—In the circle around the kitchen fireside, pots and pans and poetry are mingled. You want cheer and service, cosiness with economy efficiency with endurance—and these combined essentials are found in

Gurney-Oxford Stoves and Ranges

All the vital needs of the stove—the symbol and centre of family life—are found in these ranges. Its durability is the pride of the makers. Gurney-Oxford stoves grow up with the children.

Economy is guaranteed by the marvellous Oxford Economizer. It holds the heat without attention. 20% of your fuel saved, and nerve-force past reckoning.

Baking success is assured by the Divided Flue—a centre strip which passes over the top of the oven, causing the heat to deflect and extend evenly over the entire oven surface.

Another patented constructive feature is the Reversible Grate provided with the interlocking prongs that allow free access of air. No clinkers or ashes can accumulate. These are easily disposed of by means of the patent hearth which is lifted up instead of out, a great recommendation to the neat housewife.

Added to utmost utility is a handsome outward show to which no cut can do justice. If your dealer cannot supply you, write our nearest branch. Ask for free booklet.

Never Fail.—"Do you think women would improve politics?"
"Well," replied Mr. Growcher, "after listening to the conversation on the front porch, I'll say this for them: If they ever start an investigation they'll find out something."—Philadelphia Times.

Those Girls.—Patience—"When I was young I had at least fifty offers for my hand."

Patrice.—"Those were what you might call your palmy days, I suppose."

Keeping It Dark.—"Concede nothing," was the advice of a well-known politician concerning a certain famous disputed election. His policy was followed to the letter by the man of whom the following is told:

On the relief train that had been rushed to the scene of the railway wreck was a newspaper reporter. The first victim he saw was a man whose eyes were blackened and whose left arm was in a sling. With his hair full of dirt, one end of his shirt collar flying loose and his coat ripped up the back, the victim was sitting on the grass and serenely contemplating the landscape.

"How many people are hurt?" asked the reporter, hurrying up to him.

"I haven't heard of anybody being hurt, young man," said the other.

"How did this wreck happen?"

"I haven't heard of any wreck."

"You haven't? Who are you, anyhow?"

"I don't know that it's any of your business, but I'm the claims agent of the road."

Always Asking.—Friend—"What about the rent of a place like this? I suppose the landlord asks a lot for it?"

Hardupp.—"Yes, rather—he's always asking for it."—London Opinion.

Really!—He—"How clean the surf keeps the sea-shells."
 She—"Yes, you know the sea is very tidy."—Lippincott's.

Delighted Guests.—Willis—"Did they have a good time at your reception last night?"

Gillis.—"Yes, the guests enjoyed it hugely. All my wife's arrangements went wrong."—Puck.

A Jelly Face.—"When mamma asked if I'd been stealing jelly, I said yes." "Why didn't you deny?" "I didn't have the face to say no."—Boston Transcript.

Too Much Motor.—Wigg—"Hen-peckke has bought a motor-boat and named it after his wife."
 Wagg—"Can't manage it, eh?"—Philadelphia Record.

That Settled It.—At a cricket match in Yorkshire an appeal was made against a batsman for obstructing the field. The out side were not quite clear which umpire should be asked, so some asked one and some the other. Umpire No. 1 said "Out," Umpire No. 2 said "Not out," and consequently a dispute ensued. At last Umpire No. 1 stalked up to No. 2. "Ave you shook 'ands with Lord 'Awke?" he demanded imperiously. "No," said No. 2. "Well, I 'ave—Hout!"
 That settled it, and the batsman had to go.

Wise World.—The world likes a good loser, particularly if it gets some of his money.—Lippincott's.

Love Didn't Last.—Visitor—"Poor man! Have you been disappointed in love?"

Hermit.—"No, lady—only in matrimony."—Chicago Daily News.

UNDERWEAR

Makes You Feel Well Dressed

The basis of all good dressing is in the underclothing worn. You cannot either look or feel well dressed if your underwear is ill-fitting and uncomfortable. Your outer clothing will not sit well nor hang properly unless your underclothing "fits" properly. People who recognize the value of being properly dressed appreciate the necessity of "CEETEE" Underclothing. The success of "CEETEE" underclothing is chiefly the result of the great care taken in its making, and that is the kind of underwear people want. Every garment is made to FIT THE BODY, the material being shaped to the natural curves of the human form in the actual process of knitting. It is all made with selvedge edges—the edges being all carefully knitted (not sewn) together. Only the very finest of Australian Merino Wool is used in the making. It is so soft and clean that a baby could wear it without injury to its tender skin. We guarantee every "CEETEE" garment to be absolutely unshrinkable. Worn by the best people—sold by the best dealers. Always ask for "CEETEE." Made in all sizes and weights for Ladies, Gentlemen and Children.
