Dance of Death—First studio production

Studio Theatre of the Department of Drama opens the winter season on Friday, Oct. 24 with Strindberg's Dance of Death Parts I and II. The contemporary theatre has recently rediscovered this great play, written far ahead of its time in 1901, in productions by Lawrence Olivier and Jean Gascon. It is directed by Tom Peacocke with Walter Kaasa, Mickey Macdonald and Neil Freeman. Performances will begin at 7:30 each evening Oct. 24 to Nov. 1 (excluding Sunday) with a dinner intermission between Part I and Part II. All those interested in attending should contact Studio Theatre at 433-3265. Free tickets may be obtained by presenting SU cards at Corbett Hall, second floor.

YOU CAN LEARN TO READ 3 TO 10 TIMES FASTER

STUDENTS

Get higher marks by taking the course that teaches you how to study faster with good comprehension . . . and better prepare yourself for final examinations. If you're struggling to keep up with your work load, you can't afford NOT to take time to find out about Reading Dynamics.

BUSINESSMEN

Do you find it almost impossible to keep up with current business data, with correspondence and reports? Well, we can't add hours to your day, but we can teach you to multiply your reading speed . . . 3 to 10 times, in 8 short weeks. And you'll understand and recall more of what you read than before.

ATTEND A FREE PRESENTATION

Shouldn't you know more about Reading Dynamics? You can, by attending a free presentation. We'll tell you why you read slowly . . . show you a film . . . and answer any questions you may have. You'll be under no pressure to enroll. If you want to, fine. If not, okay. It could change your life.

Why Do You Have A Poor Memory?

A noted publisher in Chicago reports there is a simple technique for acquiring a powerful memory which can pay you real dividends in both business and social advancement and works like magic to give you added poise, necessary self-confidence and greater popularity.

According to this publisher, many people do not realize how much they could influence others simply by remembering accurately everything they see, hear, or read. Whether in business, at social functions or even in casual conversations with new acquaintances, there are ways in which you can dominate each situation by your ability to remember.

To acquaint the readers of this paper with the easy-to-follow rules for developing skill in remembering anything you choose to remember, the publishers have printed full details of their self-training method in a new booklet, "Adventures in Memory," which will be mailed free to anyone who requests it. No obligation. Send your name and address to: Memory Studies, 835 Diversey Pkwy., Dept. 156-110, Chicago, Ill. 60614. A postcard will do.
