SPORTS

Rugby rugby

by Alex Burton

Last Sunday the Dalhousie rugby hoard descended on Acadia University and soundly thumped the Axe-men 75 - 0.

Richard "Evil" Attisha led the pack as they romped over the valley men scoring a majority of Dalhousie's tries.

Tony Glavin, the stand off and place kicker, worked the backs into a feeding frenzy adding seven conversions and one penalty goal to the cause.

The half-time score was 29 - 0 and Dalhousie never looked back. Dany MacDonald also had an outstanding game, scoring four tries.

Dalhousie's seconds had a good day as well, beating the Acadia seconds 35 - 0.

Dal's next game is Saturday at St. Francis Xavier.
