

of Industry must be faced if the foundations of ^{industrial} reconstruction ~~are~~ ~~work~~ are to be laid with any hope of permanency ~~and~~ general acceptance, ~~and~~

Though most inadequately expressed, I have publicly acknowledged, in the Prefatory Note, the debt I owe to the Foundation for the opportunity which has made possible the writing of the ~~accompanying~~ volume. May I be permitted to add here a word of grateful appreciation ^{for} the many opportunities of service and other advantages ^{enjoyed} derived during the period of my association with the Foundation.

W. L. MACKENZIE KING.

The Roxborough,
Ottawa, Canada,
November 15, 1918